GADAR PLOT FOUND DEEP ROOTED IN MANY LANDS

Through Witness Sukumar Chattergi Officials Trace the Ramifications of Conspiracy

JOBO SINGH CHIEF PROBLEM OF DEFENSE

Cryptic Sign Introduced to the Jury Is Alleged to Be Open Sesame to Boche Pursues

TRIBUNE BUREAU
608 MARKET ST.
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The government expects to smash the alleged conspirators in the Hindu-German revolutionary plot against Great Britain in India, outlined by United States District Attorney John W. Preston, the work of weaving the main pattern of the conspiracy began in Federal Judge W. C. Van Fleet's court today with the introduction of witnesses who testified in regard to the main points of the prosecution. With Sukumar Chattergi still on the stand at the noon recess, the government elected true testimony which it was indicated, will be used as the foundation of the government's case through the corroborating testimony of Jobo Singh and others, Chattergi being one of the defendants indicted for his complicity. The principal testimony of this witness carried him from Washington to China, India, Samoa, Dutch West Indies, the Malay Peninsula and finally into Bangkok and Pakho, Siam, where the principal headquarters of the active members of the revolutionary party had their stores of arms, munitions and men preparing for the uprising and slaughter of the English in a huge replica of the Sepoy rebellion. The first clash between the government and counsel for the defense occurred when Preston attempted to introduce as evidence a memorandum made by the witness in his conversation with German consular officers and English and American expatriates who had been drawn to the cause by the German gold which had been so lavishly supplied by the German embassy at Washington. CRYPTIC SIGN IS REVEALED TO JURY The witness revealed the cryptic sign of the Gadgar party and told that the mere showing of this to prominent Germans, Chinese, Indian merchants was sufficient to obtain a contribution for the huge expense involved. This was the sign:

After ruling out Chattergi's memoirs on objection by Attorney Theodore Roche, the court again indicated the extraordinary precautions the government is taking to prevent the escape of any of the defendants or an overt act on any of the Hindu witnesses, when John F. Craig and J. Clyde Hizar attempted to move to a seat in another part of the courtroom. Judge Van Fleet sharply called the attention of United States Marshal Holohan to their apparently innocent act and they were required to return to chairs designated within the rail. Singh began his testimony this afternoon. SINGH'S STORY OF SOUTH SEA RAIDS Upon the shoulders of Singh, star witness for the government, will fall the burden of the work. He it is who knows the story of the coaling of the German cruiser Leipzig in the Gulf of Lower California by the oil tanker Maverick, and of the dramatic events that followed this occurrence. Of the raids of the German cruiser in the sea off the South American coast, Singh was certain—with the Maverick acting as tender. Mrs. De Saulles Faces Witnesses Story of Shooting Told to Jury Testimony of Ward Is Attacked

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE

MINNEAPOLIS, L. L., Nov. 23.—South-eastern persistency and chivalry were pitted against blueblooded Castilian aristocracy today, when the trial of Mrs. Blanca de Saulles, charged with the murder of her divorced husband, Jack de Saulles, was resumed. On one side sat Major Arthur Brice de Saulles, father of Jack de Saulles and hero of battles fought with the Confederacy during the Civil war. With the major sat his two daughters, Mrs. Degener and Mrs. MacKintosh, and his son, Charles de Saulles. DEFENDANT IS DAINTY BIT OF FEMININITY On the other side sat the defendant, a dainty bit of femininity. Like a marble statue she sat, apparently unmoved, during the beginning of the testimony. Behind her sat her mother, Señora Vazquez Errazuriz, a Chilean of gentle birth. Seated with her was her son, William, and daughter, Amelia. To the latter's right sat Carlos Ruiz, counselor to the embassy of Chile in the United States. Between the two parties and spreading its beautiful folds across the rear of the courtroom was a large American flag. The mother of Blanca de Saulles was a blank when she killed her husband; she was suffering from hypothyroidism, a fractured skull, bone pressure on the brain and an oedema. Attorney Henry A. Uthart launched his defense this trial. He continued: "When de Saulles refused to give Bianca her child, which came over him when he intended to cheat her, a pain shot through her brain, all went black and she woke up in jail." For the first time since the beginning of the trial the European war became "identified" with the case. Among the many additional threatening letters received today by Justice Manning, who is sitting in the case, was one which read in part as follows: "Mrs. de Saulles should be convicted. She is a foreigner and has come to this country and killed a man right when the country needs all of her man power. It is your duty to convict her." Several of the letters threatened death unless Mrs. de Saulles was acquitted. The majority of them were written by well educated persons. Increased vigilance was exercised by court officials again today and every person not well known to the doorknobs was searched, men as well as women. Judge Manning announced that court would be held on Saturday. Attorney Uthart, counsel for the defense, objected to the ruling on the ground that his client is so exhausted she should have at least two days of DEFENSE ATTACKS MARSHALL WARD The defense attack today centers on the testimony of Marshall Ward, a former friend of Jack de Saulles, and, by his testimony, a witness to the shooting. The shooting is admitted, but the defense claims the woman went there for her child, and the deed was committed during an attack of temporary insanity. Ward was permitted to describe the shooting, and repeated the alleged statement of the defendant: "There is no other way out of it." Later, he testified, she said: "I had to shoot him." On cross-examination Ward entered denial when asked if he ever had been arrested for a crime. Court records were produced showing he had been arrested for fighting in Rector's. The defense attacked the witness relentlessly, hoping to show his in-credibility. Ward then admitted the charge of conviction. Later he was asked about a sale of

DESPERATE EFFORT MADE BY INVADERS

Asiago Line, in Spite of Terrific Onslaughts, Still in the Main Holds Position Against foe

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
LONDON, Nov. 23.—The Teutonic attack was attempted yesterday by the Austro-German forces against Monte Meletta, but the Italians held all the positions, it was announced today by the war office. Since the German defeat by the British in France, the invading Teutons in Northern Italy had redoubled their efforts to break through the Italian lines between the Piave and Brenta valleys and terrific fighting was reported from that sector today. The Germans are using "shock troops" for assaults in intervals of heavy bombardments which continue night and day. ITALIAN LINE IS DENTED IN PLACES At some points on the Asiago plateau, the Italian line has been dented, but the main positions, as well as those in the Piave valley, are holding firm. The German and Austro-Hungarian reinforcements sent to the upper Piave have given the invaders a big superiority over the Italians, but the latter have the advantage of position, holding a chain of fortified mountain summits in the path of the Teutons. Throughout yesterday the Teutons attacked the Italian positions between the Brenta and Piave rivers. Several positions were lost more than once, the statement adds, but all were retaken. Toward evening the last Italian counter-attacks definitely stopped the Austro-Germans. Heavy fighting continues on the northern lines, centering along the low mountains above Monte Grappa. These successive mountains are proving to be the same kind of natural barrier to the enemy's swift advance that the successive rivers interposed before the Piave was reached. Before the enemy looms now capped Grappa held by the Italians, which would be a really formidable obstruction should the lower ranges be taken. HISTORIC MOUNTAIN OPPOSES THE INVADERS The name of this mountain inspires a feeling of security among the people, as it is taken from the local dialect, its meaning being "saw." The crest looks like a saw with teeth turned to the sky. It is toward this natural mountain barrier that the present mountain fighting is gradually developing. Guichino Ferrero, the distinguished Italian historian, declares that this mountain barrier is Italy's greatest security, which throughout history has brought defeat to invading armies. The fighting today between the Piave and Brenta rivers, while heavy, brought no material change in the positions of the opposing forces. BERLIN, via London, Nov. 23.—Fighting is progressing favorably for the Austro-Germans in the Italian mountains between the Brenta and Piave rivers, says the official statement issued today by the general staff. CROWLEY SR., DIES SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—David Crowley, pioneer shipping man and former president of the Crowley Line, died today at his home, 2377 Jones street, early this morning after a lingering illness. The deceased had reached the advanced age of 85 and is survived by a widow, Jane, and three sons, David Jr., Thomas and John, all connected with the launch company. The funeral will be held from St. Bridget's church at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and will be attended by the prominent shipping men on the Pacific coast, some of whom will act as honorary pallbearers.

Capps to Leave Shipping Board; Illness Is Cause

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Chief Constructor Washington L. Capps of the navy, appointed general manager of the Shipping Board's Emergency Fleet Corporation by President Wilson a few weeks ago after the resignation of Major-General Goethals, will be compelled to leave the post because of illness. He has been advised by his physician that he cannot continue at work, and his resignation will be placed in President Wilson's hands without delay. This action on the part of Admiral Capps completes a reorganization of the emergency fleet corporation. With the appointment of Charles A. Piez as vice-president of the emergency fleet corporation two weeks ago the power of Admiral Capps began to wane. At that time it stated at the emergency fleet corporation offices that because of ill health Admiral Capps had asked for assistance. With the arrival of Piez it became evident that Admiral Capps had been relieved of his power. It was then declared that while Admiral Capps would remain the title of general manager of the emergency fleet corporation, he would not retain active control. Shortly after this James A. Heyworth, another Chicago businessman, was appointed to take charge of the construction of wooden ships and still more power was taken away from Admiral Capps. FRENCH TOLD U. S. AIM BY COL. HOUSE PARIS, Nov. 23.—Colonel E. M. House and the other members of the American mission have made the quickest trip from London to Paris since the war began. They crossed the channel at the rate of thirty-one knots an hour and traveled from a French seaport where they landed to Paris in a special train at a speed unmatched in three years. Commander Sayles of the American embassy and Baron Theodore Berckheim and Maurice Chassagnon, representing the French foreign office, met the mission at the French seaport and welcomed them to France. Colonel House, for himself and in behalf of his associates, said concerning the purpose of his mission: "We bring to the French republic a message of encouragement from the American millions who are mobilizing in factories, farms and upon military fields. There is a grim determination amongst us to wage war until the world is free from the shadow and spectre of the sword. We have in mind no material gain. What we want is an assurance of permanent peace and the tramp of our soldiers upon the soil of France will be heard ever increasingly until it is achieved. It is here that our brave men have come to mingle our blood with yours. It is here that all come to gather inspiration from your heroic deeds. "Our President and our country see the issue clearly and France may confidently count on every resource which may be at our command." FOOD CHIEF QUILTS COPENHAGEN, Nov. 23.—Minister Vih, the Norwegian food minister, has resigned, according to a despatch received here from Christiania. The Norwegian parliament Thursday defeated a resolution designed to force the resignation of the cabinet. During the debate on the measure dissatisfaction was expressed with Minister Vih for his manner of handling the food question. SINK FIVE BOATS LONDON, Nov. 23.—In the past few days the Germans have sunk five Dutch fishing boats, three outside the barred zone, according to a special despatch from Amsterdam. The German destroyer V-8, which shared in the destruction was damaged in a fight with British warships last June. It was repaired at Ymuiden, Holland, and allowed to return to Germany.

TROTSKY SUBMITS ARMISTICE PROPOSAL

Will Make Formal Cessation of the Fighting Already in Full Force; Situation Unchanged

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASD WIRE TO TRIBUNE
PETROGRAD, Nov. 23.—The note of Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, to the allied embassies concerning the announcement of the proposed "armistice reached," its embassies last night. The text follows: "I herewith have the honor to inform you, Mr. Ambassador, that the All-Russian Congress of Soldiers and Workmen's Delegates organized October 26 a new government, the form of a council of national commissioners. The head of this government is Vladimir Ilich Lenin. The direction of the foreign policy has been entrusted to me, in the capacity of national commissioner for foreign affairs. "Drawing attention to the text of the offer of an armistice and a democratic peace on the basis of no annexations or indemnities, and the self-determination of nations approved by the All-Russian Congress of Soldiers and Workmen's Delegates, I have the honor to beg you to regard the above document as a formal offer of an immediate armistice on all fronts, and the immediate opening of peace negotiations—an offer with which the authoritative government of the Russian republic has addressed itself simultaneously to all the belligerent peoples and their governments. Accept my assurance, Mr. Ambassador, of the profound respect of the Soldiers and Workmen's government for the people of France, which cannot help aiming at a peace, as well as at the rest of the nations, exhausted and made bloodless by this unexampled slaughter. "L. TROTSKY. "National Commissioner for Foreign Affairs." RUSSIAN CLASSES TO BE DEMOBILIZED LONDON, Nov. 23.—Apparently carrying out its plan to cease all fighting under an armistice with the Central Powers, the Bolshevik government of Russia today announced the 1899 class of the army would be released from service immediately. Other classes will be similarly demobilized, a wireless message which has been received here asserted. PETROGRAD, Nov. 23.—Foreign Minister Trotsky of the Bolshevik cabinet announced today he possesses "search" diplomatic correspondence, which he proposed to publish at once. BOLSHEVIKI CRUMBLE AND FAMINE STALKS The Bolsheviks is crumbling away while famine is stalking near the capital. The daily ration was again reduced today. The Kerensky food ministry remains adamant in its refusal to recognize the Bolshevik government, and this, with paralysis of the railroads, brought the city to realization today of the near-approach of starvation. Eleven Bolshevik ministers have now resigned. The latest was Admiral Verederesky, as minister of marine. Captain Ivanhoff was named his successor. A general headquarters conference today adopted resolutions favoring a new all-Soviet government, to include the Bolsheviks as well as the Minimalists, and to be under Tscherevich as premier. AMSTERDAM, Nov. 23.—Russia's armistice proposal can not be rejected, but nevertheless ought to be carefully examined from the standpoint of the entire military situation, in the unanimous opinion of the Berlin press, reported in despatches today. "Acceptance," said the Vossische Zeitung, "depends entirely on the technical conditions of the proposal" (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Scrofula and Humors Give Way

There are many things learned from experience and observation that the older generation should impress upon the younger. Among them is the fact that scrofula and other humors, which produce eczema, boils, pimples and other eruptions are most successfully treated with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

This great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and herbs, which are gathered especially for it.

Dr. Julius Klein, chief of the Latin-American Division of the Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C., today held a conference at the Hotel Oakland with local manufacturers, under the auspices of the Manufacturers' Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Klein described market conditions in Mexico, South and Central America and the West Indies, and told of various market openings. He also gave instructions for handling southern trade.

DIPLOMAT ON WAY WITH PEACE PROPOSALS

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 23.—According to the Tidningen, a Russian diplomat left Stockholm yesterday for Petrograd with orders to hand to the Russian revolutionary government proposals for peace by the central powers.

Nikolai Lenin, Nov. 23.—Russia's formal armistice with the Germans will merely make formal a cessation of fighting which is already in full force.

No doubt whatever was expressed here today that the Bolsheviks would carry through their announced intention to establish a truce—and that the Germans would accept. Such a move, however, was not regarded as likely to have any effect on the military situation. Germany and Austria have already stripped their lines on the Russian fronts to almost nothing. Most of the troops used in the Italian drive came from their northern zone.

The armistice offer illustrates the lengths to which the Russian extremists are prepared to go in their program of idyllic internationalism. As observers saw it today the move was undoubtedly made with the sympathy of a great part of the war-weary arms and citizenry. The Bolsheviks are emphatically disclaiming any intention of a separate peace. The armistice offer itself is addressed to "all belligerents and states," but in Petrograd despatches on the fact that the offer is merely the first step in the ambitious—if idyllic—statement of the Bolsheviks for world peace.

ARMISTICE IS FAVORABLY REGARDED

In some circles the idea of an armistice between Russia and the Germans is regarded favorably. It was pointed out that such a formal agreement might avoid a great German drive which would sweep thousands of square miles of Russian territory into German hands—a drive timed by the enemy against a Russian army which is already half starved, totally unprepared and inadequately equipped and which could be made with a minimum of German military effort. The armistice may enable a smoothing out of the Russian military machine and that Russia will come back the quicker.

PETROGRAD, via London, Nov. 23 (British admiralty, per Wireless Press).—Nikolai Lenin and Ensign N. Krylenko, commander-in-chief of the new people's commissaries of war, have issued a proclamation to the army and navy. The proclamation says:

"On Tuesday, General Duxhomin was ordered to offer an armistice to all nations, allied and hostile. The message was received at headquarters Wednesday and General Duxhomin was instructed to keep the people's commissaries continually informed as to the progress of the negotiations and only to sign an agreement for an armistice after sanction by the commissaries had been received."

"Having received no answer from Duxhomin by Wednesday evening, Duxhomin was asked the reason for his delay. He attempted many times to evade giving an explanation and a clear answer to orders. When a categorical order was sent instructing him to offer, immediately and formally, an armistice for the purpose of commencing peace negotiations he refused to obey."

"General Duxhomin has been informed that he has been deposed."

LIMIT SERVICE ON ACCOUNT OF BOY SHORTAGE

Because of the shortage in messenger boys, due to the demand for youngsters in shipyards and at more lucrative employment, telegraph companies here are experiencing a shortage that makes it necessary to curtail messenger service, holding boys for carrying telegrams only. The Western Union has made it practically a rule to refuse boys for carrying messages to keep their own telegrams moving.

Boys are able to earn more money in the shipyards and in industrial plants than in the messenger service, according to telegraph officials. This, with the fact that the majority attend school, has severely depleted their ranks.

GADAR PLOT IS BARED TO JURY

The crews after the vessels had been looted by the Maverick itself, and the wanderings of the German gunboat Guier in mid-Pacific and her mad dash for Honolulu, where she escaped the Japanese fleet blockade by intermingling and setting fire to the ships—these were the sensations of the day.

Further revelations are to come, according to the district attorney's office—revelations of the stream of gold that poured through the German consular offices from Gadara's party who investigated the revolutionary plot; of the bond that existed between German agents and Hindus in California; of three prominent San Franciscans, whose names have not heretofore been mentioned in connection with the case, but who will be surprise witnesses for the prosecution under special immunity orders from Attorney General Gregory at Washington.

HUNDREDS WILL BE CALLED TO TESTIFY

On account of the scope of the alleged plot and the great number of persons affected, the hearing will take several days. In addition, attorneys for both sides. Hundreds of witnesses are to be called.

The importance of the case lies in the fact that scores of defendants are awaiting the outcome of this one, which will determine the extent to which the Government intends to make with its own case.

Many of the defendants are already out on bail and for one at least, a Southern California millionaire, who failed to appear in court when his name was called, at least one bench warrant has been issued.

EVACUATION OF CAMBODIA BEGUN

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 23.—The Germans have begun to move their military stores from Cambrai, according to advices received here today.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Promotion of Sir Julian Byng from lieutenant-general to the full rank of general in recognition of his services in the operations around Cambrai, was formally announced by the war office today.

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, Nov. 23.—England's master stroke against Cambrai was carried through to victory with an almost incredibly small casualty list. The total of German prisoners taken today reached the thousands. It exceeded by several thousands the number of the British losses in killed, wounded and missing.

Peek still farther behind the lines was the gigantic machinery which enabled them to bring to bear enormous forces of men and war materiel with the speed necessary to carry through their plans for a surprise attack.

Tanks, cavalry and infantry were all in action. The enemy has collected great forces of reserves and these were striving today to press back the plotters which the Tomnies are squeezing around Cambrai.

from his functions for disobeying the government and for conduct which is bringing unheard of suffering to all the war-ravaged masses and to all the country, especially to the children. He has been ordered to continue his duties until the new commander-in-chief or any other person authorized by him, arrives to take command.

"General Krylenko has been appointed the new commander-in-chief."

WASHINGTON NOT TO HEAD OFFER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Bolshevik overtures for an armistice will go unheeded by the United States, government officials indicated today.

The Russian war ministry and ministry of marine organized by Kerensky are still operating independently of the Bolshevik government, the Russian branch of the government.

The only branch of the government dominated by the Bolsheviks is the ministry of foreign affairs, of which Leon Trotsky is the new head, it was declared. The office of the ministry of foreign affairs is "purely political," he explained, and for that reason had to be taken over when Kerensky was overthrown by a political revolt.

The food ministry also is continuing its operations without interference by the Maximists.

HUNTEXACTOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Maurice Du Pars, former Chicago actor, is being hunted by detectives in Los Angeles today on a charge of passing bad checks while posing as an army recruiting officer. Du Pars is alleged to have deserted from the Sixty-third infantry while stationed at the Presidio here. It is asserted that he left a trail of bad checks through half a dozen cities, including San Jose, San Francisco and Hollister. At Hollister he is said to have persuaded several Knights of Columbus to enlist. He went to Los Angeles to recruit for the deserters, say, among his victims is a San Francisco society woman, whose name is withheld.

on the Aisne front and on the Verdun front. The fighting broke out North of Rheims German raids were repulsed.

BERLIN (via London), Nov. 23.—A new battle is in progress in the Cambrai area, army headquarters announced today. The fighting broke out anew this morning in the direction of Meures.

Yesterday, the statement adds, the Germans forced the British from the village of Fontenay and from La Folewood. English attacks against Rumilly, Banteux and Vendhuile, the war office reports, collapsed with heavy losses.

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 23.—The British attack on the front will have no influence on the situation either in Flanders or in Italy, according to the Lokale Anzeiger of Berlin. It says:

"The British attempt to break through collapsed entirely in the face of the extraordinary bravery of our troops. It went no further than the initial success, an interruption into our position, which must be without effect on the neighboring positions and which the enemy tried to extend in vain owing to the powerful thrusts of our reserves."

"The enemy will not succeed by this abortive attack in diverting our attention from Flanders, where he is certain to renew his efforts, which now have become a necessity in order to rid himself of the U-boat bases, which are so dangerous to him. Moreover, the attacks near Cambrai and Craonne certainly will not exercise the slightest influence on the situation in Italy."

WEINBERG'S CASE UNDER ARGUMENT

TRIBUNE BUREAU

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Opening for the defense, Attorney Edwin McKenzie made an appeal today to the jury in the Israel Weinberg case for a just verdict for his client, indicted on a charge of murder in the Preparedness day parade explosion. He asked the jury to treat defendant "not harshly and cruelly, but justly, as you would that your own be judged on your brother or son."

He attacked the State's theory of the construction of the bomb, and the testimony of their witnesses and their finding of metal fragments after the explosion, all of which exhibits he had before him on a long table facing the jury, and which he believed will be taken up by him as his argument progresses in an endeavor to prove Weinberg's lack of collusion with the plot.

He will consume the entire day with his argument, and when he concludes Judge Emmet Sewell has indicated he will adjourn court until Monday, when Attorney Thomas

2 ARRESTED FOR AUTO FATALITIES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Three are dead—two women and one man—and three are injured—two women and a child—as the toll of automobile accidents in Los Angeles within the past twelve hours. Two men are under arrest on suspicion of manslaughter for having run down persons, killing them, and the police are off on a campaign against motor law violators.

The dead:

T. M. PIERCE, Pasadena; struck by motorcycle.

MRS. HELEN HOLMAN, Los Angeles; run down by automobile.

MRS. ELIZA E. BREWER, Los Angeles; run down by automobile.

Mrs. Helen Crut of Monrovia, who was with Mrs. Holman, was injured so that she will be crippled for life.

Mrs. Minnie Kolbeck, who was struck when Mrs. Brewer was run down and killed, probably will die from internal injuries.

E. H. Patterson and C. R. Abbott, both of Los Angeles, are under arrest in connection with the deaths of the women.

AUTO KILLS ONE

SAN MATEO, Nov. 23.—Richard R. Witts, 447 Vienna street, a fireman of Engine No. 1, was killed and three friends, Philip M. Nestor, a contractor; Daniel Cadigan, a fireman; and Timothy A. Crowley, a boilermaker, were seriously injured when a machine driven by Nestor skidded on the State highway near Belmont and turned turtle in a ditch. The four men were crushed beneath the tonneau, Witts dying at the Red Cross hospital a few minutes afterward.

Nestor had admitted the three men to go for a ride. Near Belmont they ran into a pile of gravel which road workers had left alongside the highway. The slipping of the gravel, according to Nestor, caused the machine to get away from him and turn over.

Cadigan lives at 707 Excelsior street, San Francisco, and is connected with Engine Company No. 28 in that city; Crowley is a boilermaker of 119 Prague street, in the same city, and Nestor lives at 379 Naples street. All the injured men are suffering from sprained backs, internal injuries and cuts and bruises.

Witts was married and had two children. His wife was at his bedside when he died.

The case was reported today to Mayor J. R. Locker of Mentor. Police believe the invaders were searching for government papers.

Thousands of Hun Captives Free German Methods Aired to World Refugees Say Enemy Starving

BRITISH ARMY HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, Nov. 23.—The roads everywhere for two days have been swarming with advancing troops and with prisoners and civilians coming back from the front. Many rejoicing non-combatants, men, women and children, have been pouring out of the captured towns under the guidance of their deliverers from German bondage.

This has been a battle of strict sights, but no more striking spectacles has been witnessed than that of these people marching toward homes and comfort back of the British front. Through the very gaps which the tanks had torn in the famous Hindenburg line, mothers yesterday and today were pushing baby carriages containing infants or tramping happily along with their babies clutched to their breasts. Beside them toddled other youngsters, many of them carrying their treasured dolls and a few clinging determinedly to squirming puppies, which they dared not trust to run on the ground. Old men and women were bringing away all the household effects they could pack on pushcarts or carry on their backs.

For three years they have been in captivity and some of them in slavery. They had been subsisting on the bounty of the American Relief Committee, which furnished them virtually the only food they obtained.

Civilians who were released from Masnières told something of their experiences in the last three years. They rejoiced at their new-found freedom, and many of them today still wept with joy when the subject of their deliverance was brought up.

WATCH FRIENDS APPROACH. It was a motley crowd of highlanders out of this place—people in all conditions and from many walks of life. Among them was the mayor, M. L. Lelaine, a middle-aged man, who acted as spokesman. They first learned of the approach of the British by machine gun fire from the distance. They were immediately thrown into a state of excitement and watched for the coming of their friends from every vantage point available.

They had their first sight of the advancing forces at the bridgehead and saw coming with them attacking troops strange monsters which they never dreamed existed. They were the great tanks, and the people stared in amazement as these mighty engines plowed their way forward.

All other food than the American was requisitioned by the Germans, who placed heavy penalties on those who concealed any. For instance, the secreting of a bottle of ordinary wine called for a fine of ten francs or a long term in prison, and there was twice as severe a penalty for hiding a bottle of champagne. Many persons served terms in jail for alleged violations of the orders. They were well fed, however, owing to American relief, and all appeared healthy.

The Germans stripped all the houses of the town of the furniture as soon as they entered. Among the houses thus pillaged were five magnificent chateaus. All men of military age were arrested and sent to Germany. Women were compelled to do all manner of work, such as sweeping streets, washing clothes of German officers and waiting on officers.

SAYS GERMANY STARVING. The mayor declared his belief that Germany was actually starving. He said there seemed to be no doubt that the civilians in Germany were undergoing great hardships.

Among the most interesting of the refugees was a man of military age who had hidden in a cellar for three years to escape the Germans and had been fed by his wife with an extra ration of food allowed her because she had a baby. This man, 35 years old and in the ordinary course would have been arrested and sent to a prison camp as soon as the Germans entered the town. He did not want to leave his wife and baby, and so hid in a secret place in the cellar, there making himself liable to the death penalty if detected. German officers came to live in his house, and daily he heard them tramping about above him in accordance with custom, this house and all others were searched every little while to see if any one was concealed, but the Germans never discovered his hiding place. Each day while the officers were away his wife smuggled his little store of food and water to him.

When the British entered the town the wife, after making sure they were British, went home and brought out her husband, who had his first glimpse of the outside world since August, 1914. The Germans were to have searched the house again the day the British captured the town.

This refugee seemed to be in fair health, notwithstanding his confinement, but his nerves were badly shattered and he wept continually today as his story was being related. He was clinging to a bag containing several hundred francs which he had carried with him into his cave.

THANKS TRIBUNE

OAKLAND TRIBUNE. The Oakland County Nurses' Association, Inc., takes pleasure in thanking you for generous publicity given our recent theater party which we gave to raise funds for the local Red Cross.

We know your many interesting articles referring to our work accomplished much toward making it such a grand success.

STRENGTH SHOWN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Strength of the German military forces assembled on the western front is indicated by official statistics compiled by the French authorities made public today. This shows that the German divisions engaged in battle in 1917 were: On the Aisne-Champagne line, 51; Alsace-Lorraine and Metz, 28; Ardennes, 21; Flanders, 20; Alsace, October, 1917, 13.

"One Touch of Nature Makes the Whole World Kin."

It's a commendable trait that when something as beautiful as that which we want to share it with others who are in need of the same help. It's the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin. We are waiting to be helpful to our fellow-men. That is why people who have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy write letters to the manufacturers about it, and ask to have them published so that others will know what to do under the same circumstances. Behind every one of these letters is the heart-hearted wish of the writer to be of use to some one else. For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

MANY LETTERS TELL OF GERMANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—A flood of letters and telegrams reporting suspicious German, the result of President Wilson's proclamation placing restrictions on alien enemies, reached the department of justice and were carefully scanned by agents of the bureau of investigation. Many were from persons who did not understand that the alien enemy regulations applied only to unnaturalized Germans and not to those of German nativity or birth who have become citizens.

The investigation bureau's mail has been particularly heavy for several months since the department of justice issued an appeal to all citizens to report any persons or circumstances appearing dangerous to the country's prosecution of the war. The bureau's agents have been busy with the living and lengthy explanations of their suspicion.

NO ALLIANCES, SAYS LORD CECIL

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Replying in the House of Commons to a comprehensive question concerning alliances between the allies and the advisability of a league of nations to establish a covenant of peace between the allies and other nations and secure disarmament, Lord Robert Cecil, minister of blockade, denied the existence of any alliance between the United States and Great Britain for co-operation in the present war or that any alliances would be operative after the termination of the war, except those with Japan and Portugal, which existed before the war.

ASKS COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Miss Ruth Law of Chicago, the aviator, today applied to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a commission in the aviation section of the signal corps. The department took her application under consideration.

SPEEDING TRAIN BARELY MISSES A CROWDED CAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Crashing through the safety barrier at Twenty-fourth and Mission streets, United Railroads car No. 1538, loaded to the steps with passengers, came to a stop last evening directly in the path of a speeding Southern Pacific passenger train, and for one terrible moment men and women fought in frenzy to escape from what seemed imminent death. One quick turn of the controller bar in the hands of the motorman, and the car leaped forward, breaking through the second barrier just in time to miss the pilot of the locomotive thundering by.

The near accident was due, according to witnesses, to the failure of the car brakes to hold at a critical moment. The motorman applied the brakes for a stop as he saw the gates descending, but the heavily loaded car slid forward, splintered the barrier and came to a dead stop directly on the Southern Pacific tracks.

One woman, whose name was not ascertained, was thrown from the car and fell on her face close to the rails, lying within two feet of the train as it swept past. Another woman, jumping off and ran screaming up the right of way. She did not return to the car.

DIVERS AFTER U. S. TRANSPORT

A FRENCH PORT, Nov. 23.—The latest American transports to reach here had an exciting trip through the submarine zone. The first night in the zone two transports collided. One was slightly damaged, while the other had a small hole torn in its bow and a few projecting guns damaged. Temporary repairs were made and the ships proceeded.

The following night a submarine attacked the transports. The wake of a torpedo was seen off the bow of one of the vessels, but no conning tower or periscope was visible.

The transports raced ahead and succeeded in reaching port safely, where the collision damage was repaired.

SEND BOYS GUM
IOWA CITY, Iowa, Nov. 22.—Chewing gum for the soldiers who do not smoke has been suggested by Professor E. W. Rockwood, head of the department of chemistry at the state university here. Professor Rockwood declares that gum has the same effect as tobacco in soothing the nerves, and urges that large supplies of it be sent to the western front and the various camps in this country. "Chewing gum," says Professor Rockwood, "keeps the thoughts of the soldiers from discomfort and danger. There is no doubt the soldier uses the tobacco to send him for the same purpose, particularly if he has not been a habitual smoker."

HUN ATROCITIES TOLD BY PRIVATE

"America has five years of war ahead. Germany is not beaten yet—will not be for a long time, and this talk of starving her out is nonsense. She has wonderful soldiers, and plenty of them."

So declares Louis Hart, private in the British army, here while on furlough. Hart, wounded at Mons and later wounded again while recovering from his first injury, came to America on sick leave. He has seen the havoc wrought by the Germans in their retreats, and tells a blood-curdling story of atrocities that he witnessed with his own eyes. He declares that America will be no help in the present war until the American people wake up to the fact that they are in real war—he declares that the general public still imagine that it will be no more serious than the struggle with Spain.

"I have seen little children, mutilated beyond recognition," he says. "In one town, where the Germans had retreated, I found an old woman—about eighty years of age—slashed with knives because she had no food in her cottage for the Germans to seize. In another town we found several young girls, tortured and subjected to treatment I cannot describe."

"It is not just a few of the German soldiers who have done these things. The victims say that all German soldiers are the same when they arrive in a town—that all spread terror. That is why we Canadians take no prisoners."

Hart, who was a vaudeville star before joining the British army, is following his old business until two months from now, when he again will return to the French front.

MUST PAY TAX ON LEGAL PAPER

County Recorder G. W. Bacon announces that beginning December 1 war stamp taxes will be effective upon the following documents recorded in his office:

Bonds of Indebtedness—On bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness issued on and after December 1, 1917, 5 cents on each $100 of face value or fraction thereof.

Bonds, Indemnity and Surety—Bonds indemnifying any person, corporation or partnership, and all bonds for the due execution or performance of any contract, obligation, or requirement, or the duty of any office or position, and to account for money by virtue thereof, and all other bonds of any description, except such as may be required in legal proceedings, not otherwise provided for, a tax of 50 cents.

Where a premium is charged for the execution of such bond the tax is one per cent on each dollar or fractional part of the premium charged. Policies of reinsurance are exempt from this tax.

Promissory Notes—Drafts or checks payable otherwise than at sight or on demand, promissory notes, except bank notes issued for circulation, and for renewal of same, for a sum not exceeding $100, 2 cents; and for each additional $100, 2 cents; and for each additional $100, 2 cents.

Stamps must be affixed to notes and checks, and must be cancelled by the holder of the stamp so affixed, together with date and nature of cancellation.

Conveyances—On every deed, instrument of writing granting, assigning, transferring or conveying realty, when the consideration or value of the property conveyed, exclusive of liens or encumbrances, exceeds $100 and does not exceed $500, 50 cents; and for each additional $500, 50 cents; and for each additional $500, 50 cents.

Power of attorney granting authority to do or perform some act not for or in behalf of the grantor, etc., 25 cents.

Penalty—Failure to affix proper stamps with intent to evade the law, subjects the offender to a fine not exceeding $1000, or imprisonment not more than six months, or both.

Stamps can be obtained at the Internal Revenue Office, Room 23, Postoffice Building, Seventeenth and Broadway, and should be affixed and canceled before presenting the document for recordation.

Plans to lay before the city council the proposition of forcing restaurants to carry labels on their bills of fare when they use meat purchased from Chinese butchers local. The butchers hold that the smaller restaurants are purchasing this meat, which they say often is slaughtered under non-union conditions. The local department of the Central Labor Council will advise the city fathers whether such an ordinance could be legally enforced.

Several new charters for the organization of new craft are shortly to be sought by Oakland workers according to Federation organizers. The organizers are planning to organize unskilled crafts who heretofore found their only affiliation in the I. W. W. The formation of these new unions will take this function from the Industrial Workers and grant the men the backing of organized labor.

SEEKS SISTER

Mrs. Janet B. G. Mallin, residing at 3430 Broadway, Canada, has written to The TRIBUNE asking assistance in locating Frances Demarest, Canadian, and whose home was in Oakland. Mrs. Mallin writes that her mother, who was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, died in Oakland. Mrs. Mallin will be in San Francisco this month and her address will be 520 Battery street, care of W. H. Thornley.

SYNDICATE BOND WAR HINTED AT

That the demand of a group of Class A bondholders in the Realty Syndicate for money due on bonds which matured May 1 of this year may precipitate a fight between holders of Class A bonds, Class B bonds and the other creditors of the company, with the probability of a conflict in the courts, was indicated today by members of the advisory committee which had the reorganization of the Realty Syndicate under consideration.

The situation confronting the directors of the Realty Syndicate Company, who have been directing the reorganization of the corporation since 1914, is declared to have become the most serious in the past three years. The banks which have been carrying the load and the directors who have fought to protect the interests of the Class B bondholders have become weary of the task, it is intimated. Now the demand of the Class A bondholders for their money promises to bring the whole edifice, which was being built up and bolstered against the shocks of the present bond and stock market situation, down in a heap.

MEETING IS HELD.

The movement to cause a "show down" was initiated yesterday at a meeting attended by about twenty-five holders of Class A bonds, representing it is understood, some $230,000 of the bonds out of $400,000 outstanding with the public. This group was convened by A. E. Connick, a young banker from Eureka. Plans were made to appoint a "protection committee" to wait upon the F. M. Smith advisory committee to see what could be done in behalf of the bondholders, who are seeking to "get their money."

The point of attack between the Class A and Class B bondholders is the action of the board of directors in permitting Class B bondholders to take up some $2,800,000 of real estate which was the security for the bonds, in return for their old Class B bonds, known as "Realty Stakes." The Class A bondholders declare that this is the security behind their bonds, although it has been withdrawn and used to liquidate the obligations of the junior Class B series.

The members of the F. M. Smith advisory committee hold that their action was justified legally and by the equities of the case to protect the holders of the old Realty Syndicate Stakes, who had no security for what they held. They claim the withdrawal of this land and its granting to the Class B holders did not impair the security of the Class A men, inasmuch as there is enough property left completely to protect the Class A series holders.

IS BIG ADJUSTMENT.

The members of the advisory committee are Frank B. Anderson, John S. Drum, Mortimer Fleishacker, W. W. Garthwaite and C. O. G. Miller. The directors of the Realty Syndicate Company, organized in 1914 to take over the affairs of the Realty Syndicate, include those named above and C. P. Murdock and F. M. Smith.

When this committee took charge it found the Realty Syndicate with $8,000,000 in debts and some $14,000,000 in assets, according to the directors. The assets included real estate in the counties of Alameda, Contra Costa and Madera, Pacific Borax Company stock, and railroad stock, largely that of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway.

Of the debts about $4,000,000 was secured by mortgages on the real estate and by the borax and transportation stocks. The remainder, $4,000,000, was represented by the Realty Syndicate Stakes, and was unsecured. It was in handling these assets to protect in the best manner possible both those who were secured and those who were unsecured that the committee has come into conflict with the group of Class A holders.

ASKS FOR TRIAL

An echo of the Roosevelt convention in Chicago was heard in the Superior Court today when attorneys E. H. C. Burroughs and Julius Jorgens filed an affidavit and petition to have a suit of the Owners' Realty Company against J. Gouwin Thompson revived and set for trial, alleging that while the attorneys were at the convention, a clerk in their office inadvertently caused the suit to be dropped from the calendar. The action is to recover $234 and interest on an contract for the sale of Half Moon Bay property, which the Owners Realty Company, as agents, claim they sold to Thompson.

SUING ESTATE

William Hoffman has filed a suit against the estate of Frederick Hoffman, deceased, claiming $2875 due him on account of many loans to the elder Hoffman during his lifetime. Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman, the widow, who is also the stenographer of the claimant, denies that any money was ever so loaned and is preparing to fight the claim.

DUTTON ISSUES HIS PLATFORM

David C. Dutton issued the following statement today:

"I stand for a truly democratic administration for Oakland, everybody having the right to directly and personally transact public business with the Mayor."

"The lowest possible tax rate, but not a tax rate made 'low' for the purpose of getting votes and which means that the city is avoiding this year must be paid out of a much higher tax rate next year. Commissioner Edwards has admitted this in a public address."

"The material and complete development of the city and harbor on a plan that will make of Oakland a seaport city in the shortest possible time."

"The continuous and proper maintenance of public streets, fire houses and sewers, believing that it is the most unbusinesslike and expedient of policies to neglect such things during the current year, thus demanding the expenditure (waste) of much extra public money next year. This is not 'low' taxation."

"The pressing to the earliest possible conclusion of all litigation to which the City of Oakland is a party, including the suits concerning the estuary leases, believing that the world's demands of today make it imperative that Oakland should at once get into shape to take care of the unprecedented opportunities now hammering at her door."

"The civic recognition of the fundamental demands of humanity. It is a duty of a great, prosperous and happy city to maintain a workyard, a woman's bureau, a baby hospital and to see that the very poorest of children in the public schools should have necessary meals and clothes."

"The creation of perfect confidence between the Mayor's office and the people, such confidence to be based on an open, frank, mutual administration of the city's business."

"The appointment of a permanent advisory council of citizens representing every element and every section of the city. I pledge myself, if elected, to re-

GARDENER GETS IRON CROSS FOR GOOD LETTUCE

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Charges of partiality in the bestowing of the Iron Cross were found today in the diary of a German prisoner captured in front of Cambrai. He was a member of the fourth guard division and was apparently burning with wrath over the matter.

"Sergeant majors give out the crosses without the slightest regard for merit," wrote this soldier. "I know of one instance where a battalion gardener was given the Iron Cross because he grew such excellent lettuce."

"The matter was referred to Commissioner Jackson range for such a council, and to be guided by his advice."

"More smokestacks and more happy homes, believing that the two are inseparable."

"The unquestioned freedom and equality of all citizens as guaranteed by the Federal Constitution. I am unalterably opposed to any word or act that may tend to array one class of citizens against another."

"The full exercise by the Mayor of the great powers conferred on him by the charter, knowing that said powers if fully exercised are sufficient to guarantee a clean, economical, progressive and harmonious administration that will compel the respect of all the people."

"The full performance of the mayor's duties by the mayor himself so that he shall assume and be held for the personal responsibility of his acts. The inalienability of the mayor's oath of office."

CANDIDATES IN RECALL SPEAK

Neighborhood meetings were addressed by the candidates in the recall election last night. David C. Dutton spoke at Washington hall, and the Claws school. John Golden, who has been taking in behalf of the recall at Dutton meetings, also addressed the Claws school meeting.

Mayor Davis spoke at a neighborhood gathering at the home of Mrs. Lucy Barker and discussed the recall issues, going over, in a large measure, the subjects he has handled at previous meetings.

Mayor Davis also addressed neighborhood meetings.

Dutton, in his talk at Washington hall, advised his hearers to read the reports of the speeches of the various candidates in the newspapers to obtain a complete picture of the situation, and in reach a judgment as to the merits of the claims made. He said in part:

"I take it that the public in general and as individuals are thoroughly competent to judge of the relative value of the statements by candidates for public office. During the past three weeks I have appeared on many platforms, and I saw without fear of contradiction that every statement or fact that I have made can be verified by public records, personal knowledge of voters or by reference to files of newspapers and other authorities within easy reach of you all. I would also refer you to the speeches of Mr. Davis. At this time I am making no criticism of them, but am merely asking you to acquaint yourself with them, and to be the judge as to which of the candidates offers the most constructive, intelligent platform upon which to build a successful administration. Do this and I will be satisfied."

ACTIVITY OF KAUFMAN.

Golden took the activity of George Kaufman, the mayor's advisor, in relating to the transportation systems. He said:

"One of the most serious facts that has come to light during this campaign is the statement of George Kaufman that he is greatly interested in bringing about a monopoly of ferry and street railroad transportation. He has told us that the existing competition is uneconomical and that the two systems should be rolled into one. Kaufman has it all down pat. He would put the Key Route into bankruptcy, turn all their property over to the Southern Pacific at a bargain price, doing away with competition which has been the chief factor in building Oakland from a village into a city."

PREDICTS RUSH TO NEW HOSPITAL

Characterizing Alameda county's new tubercular hospital at the best institution of its kind, west of Chicago, Director
Thompson, of the State Board of Health, has written the supervisors warning that there will likely be an influx of patients from counties not equipped to take care of their own patients. In such numbers
of their own patients, in such numbers that the capacity of Alameda county to take care of its own residents will be overtaxed.

Under authority of a State law enacted six years ago, such counties as are not so equipped may accept patients in other county institutions having the recommendation of the State Board. The State makes provision for payment for their care at the rate of $10 a month. In order to protect Alameda county from being over-taxed, residence of one patient in the county is required under the subsidy provision.

ESTIMATED SUBSIDY.
It is estimated that Alameda county will earn a subsidy of approximately $10-000 by reason of outside counties sending patients under the act.

The Alameda County Anti-Tubercular
Society, under the direction of the State Board of Health, is beginning a census of residents suffering with tuberculosis, and it is expected that the result of the census will be a very considerable increase of the number of patients who apply to the county sanitarium. The census will require three months to complete.
The work is being done by Miss Linda Mitschke with a staff of assistants.

WILL INCREASE NUMBER.
Director G. C. Cuvelier of the society says there are 301 reported cases of tuberculosis in the county, and that they expect the survey to increase the number by at least fifty per cent. It is generally the case, he says, that owing to hesitancy of sufferers and physicians to report, not to exceed 2 or 3 per cent of the cases are known to the health authorities. The survey, he says, will make a house-to-house census of the poorer districts, and it is expected that surprising results will be realized.

The number of deaths in Oakland in the last two years from tuberculosis is 854, and new cases reported total 132. In Alameda there have been in the same time 51 deaths and 51 new cases reported, and in Berkeley 65 deaths and 61 new cases.

WILL FILL OFFICES
The State of California is to co-operate with other states, with counties and with municipalities in apprehending criminals.
The State Bureau of Criminal Identification and Investigation, created at the legislature of 1917 is to complete its organization in the near future, and appoint a superintendent and assistant superintendent.

The State Civil Service Commission is to hold examinations to fill these positions.
Candidates will be given a practical test in classification and identification by the use of finger prints and Bertillon measurements. It is desired to secure the most competent men possible for these positions, as the success of the bureau will largely depend upon their efficiency. The State Civil Service Commission extends its request to all persons who have had extended experience in this work to participate in this examination.
The position of superintendent pays
$2400 per annum and that of Assistant $1800 per annum. Applications must be filed with the commission not later than November 28, 1917.

Applicants may be secured at the offices of the commission, Room 10, Ferry Building, San Francisco.

SEES FOR DAMAGES
The San Francisco Sulphur Company of Berkeley has been made defendant in a damage suit for $4000 instituted by Mrs. Barbara Dutches, who complains that the fumes from the works destroy her garden and injure her health. She asks that the works be required to shut down.

SUBJECT TO CROUP.
"Our little girl is subject to frequent attacks of croup," writes F. O. Strong, Capitola, Cal. "I always give her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, as one or two doses of it cures her. This is a favorite remedy for croup, as it can be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. It contains no narcotic. For sale by Osgood

GIRLS LEAD FOR SCHOOL'S HONORS

Girls lead in the new "honor roll" of the Fremont High school, chosen every year from the graduating class when the ten best students among the graduates are named. The ratio is seven to three.
There are seven girls and three boys on the list of ten chosen for class honors.
The honor students were chosen from the December, 1917, class, soon to graduate, on the basis of scholarship records.
They are Llewellyn Dingley, Merle Gunter, Amanda Kaiser, Gladys Kitchell, Gertrude Markovitz, Marjorie Morris,
Edna Simonsen, Violet Stockholm, Marguerite Wible, George Wotton. Miss Gladys Kitchell has been selected valedictorian and Miss Amanda Kaiser as salutatorian of the class.

EDITORS CHOSEN.
Carol Scott, at present assistant editor of the Green and Gold, the high school weekly, was chosen editor for 1918 by the class presidents.

Parley Granger and Vernon Sullivan are to be editor and business manager, respectively, of the school annual, the Flame, which will be published in May.
The school honor roll is published after each quarter's reports are out and includes the names of all students who have reached the honor roll standard. The standard is high, but the list grows after each quarter. There were fifty-nine names on the roll of last quarter as against eighty-two on the present roll.

I.W.W. PLAN OF SABOTAGE IS REVEALED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—A campaign of sabotage in Southern California by the I. W. W. was heard here today when department of justice officials began reading hundreds of letters and documents seized in raids on headquarters of the organization following the arrest late yesterday of H. Stredwick, I. W. W. leader, and Phil McLaughlin, said to be one of the heads of the Los Angeles branch.

Hundreds of letters and much literature were secured, urging members of the organization to carry on a campaign of sabotage throughout Southern California. Literature advocating the destruction of machinery and fruit trees was found. In this connection the officers found a number of copper tacks that members have been driving into fruit trees to kill them.

The arrests and the raids followed as soon as United States officers learned of the attempt to destroy the Hauser Packing Company's plant by fire Wednesday night.

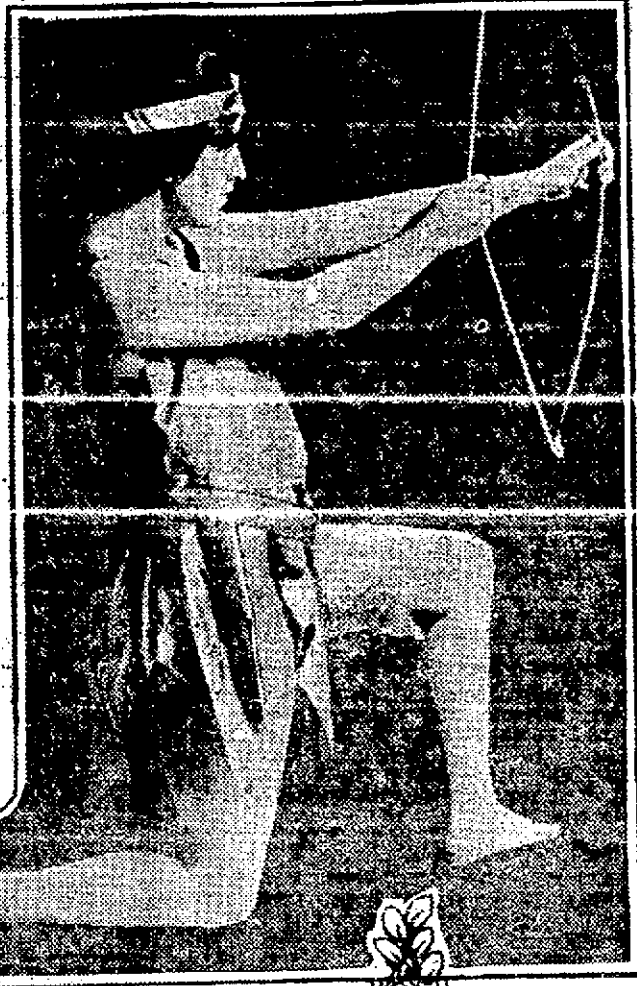

Assistant United States attorneys and deputy marshals are confident that the fire was started by members of the I. W. W., who, they claim, recently have been receiving German money to carry on their campaign of sabotage.

An arrest directly in connection with the alleged plot to destroy the big packing plant was made early today when Frank W. Ball, formerly of Elgin, Ill., was jailed. Ball is said to have told Captain of Detectives Home that he stated the "quite by accident." He said he knew nothing of the fire alarm wires being cut. He explained the incendiary bomb found as being a gasoline can "trapped in sacks" to smother the flames which started in the car when Ball struck a match to look for something he had dropped.

Federal agents and Detective Home are investigating further. They believe there is some connection with Ball's activities and the I. W. W. sabotage campaign planned for this section. Ball had worked for the company two weeks.

Pretty Features Planned For Children's Benefit

MISS ERNA HELMERT HALBE, who will appear in classical dances at the benefit for the barefoot school children.

Good Music, Dancing and Vaudeville Are on Program of Show at Auditorium

One of the features of the benefit performance for Oakland's barefooted school children, which is to be given at the Oakland Auditorium Saturday night, will be the introduction of Clemence Bordenave, former soprano with the De Tally French Opera company and a pupil of Madame Sembrich, and the classical dancing of Miss Erna Helmert Halbe, premier danseuse, who will give an interpretation of ancient and modern dance steps.

In addition there will be a concert by the Shriners' band, a program of vaudeville numbers from the different playhouses which have contributed their best acts for the affair in aid of the needy children.

Eugenia Clinehard, the bright and talented child performer, will contribute a clever number.

Songs of Scotland will be rendered by the Scottish claret chorists, made up of thirty male voices, and in addition there will be Scotch pipers and dancers.

A notable feature of the bill will be a miniature minstrel revue by members of the Oakland Fiske club.

The program offered is one of exceptional merit, and together with the worthy object of the entertainment, is expected to crowd the municipal theater tomorrow evening.

DIES AT FRONT

EUREKA, Nov. 23.—Alfred Silvester, 27 years old, a son of Mrs. Eliza Silvester of this city, is dead as the result of wounds received while serving with the Canadian contingent on the French front, according to word received here today. Silvester enlisted in Canada four years ago and has seen continuous service since. He was raised in this county and formerly was employed by the Pacific Lumber Company at Scotia.

BIRD EXPERT DIES

STOCKTON, Nov. 23.—Lynan Belding, oldest living ornithologist in the United States and honorary member of the Smithsonian Institution, died here at the age of 83, after a long illness of six years. He was a resident of Stockton and was famous for his songs of western birds to music.

SICK WOMAN HAD CRYING SPELLS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Enhaut, Pa.—"I was all run down and weak inwardly. I had female troubles and nervous feelings and my head ached. I was crying spells and feel as if I was not safe. If I heard anyone coming I would run and lock the door so they would not see me. I tried several doctors and they did not help me so I said to myself 'I will have to die as there is no hope for me.' She got me one of your little books and my husband said I should try one bottle. I stopped the doctor's medicine and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It soon made a change in me and now I am strong and do all my work."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS BAUGHMAN, Box 86, Enhaut, Pa.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out and drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

If you would like free confidential advice address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Nurse Saves 2 Oakland People From Operation

"I had two patients that the doctors seemed unable to reach with their medicines and in both cases advised the knife. A friend who had tried Mayr's Wonderful Remedy for Stomach trouble proposed that I recommend it to my patients, which I did. Both are now entirely well. I am very glad that I was able to recommend it. It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Osgood's Dept. Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

DOLL SHOW WILL CLOSE TONIGHT

Bringing to a close one of the most successful doll shows in many seasons, the West Oakland Home will give a large dinner dance this evening at the Hotel Oakland. Reservations for several hundred guests have been made and features of the evening will be an informal program. Some of those who have reserved tables are Mrs. Robert Olsen, Mrs. A. C. Smith, Mrs. Samuel Eva, Mrs. Louis Dudley Manning, Mrs. H. B. Mehrmann, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Joseph R. Knowland, Mrs. A. M. Beale, Mrs. Fred Read, Mrs. H. E. A. Ballton, Mrs. J. Amann, Mrs. Landers Redman and scores of others.

The children's program yesterday afternoon was one of the largest presented by the committee. Crowds thronged the ballroom from early afternoon till the dinner hour.

Today is the last day of the bazaar. Nearly all of the dolls have been sold with the exception of a few prize ones which will be featured tonight at the dance.

PLACES BOMBS TO SCARE BANKER

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Reinhold A. Faust, a German, placed two bombs in the Auditorium theater last Friday night, endangering the lives of 2000 persons, just to "scare" two First National Bank officials into paying him $100,000.

That was the gist of a confession in the hands of the police today.

Faust, a naturalized American, and former postoffice clerk, was arrested last night. The police found enough explosive in his home to blow up several buildings.

The confession was obtained from Faust after he had been arrested on a charge of sending four threatening letters to Frank O. Wetmore, president of the First National Bank, and James B. Forgan, chairman of the board of directors.

Faust said he conceived a "hatred against the world" when he was discharged from the postoffice service ten years ago. This was increased, he said, when he lost $4000 he obtained through the sale of his home, in trying to raise money on a farm near Crystal Springs, Texas. Since then he has been working for an express company. He is married and has two grown daughters. He is 36 years of age.

In his confession, Faust declared one of the bombs placed in the Auditorium contained only phosphorus and that the other was so constructed it could not be possibly exploded.

TO GET LIFE TERM

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 23.—Found guilty of murder in the first degree by a jury here last night which recommended life imprisonment, H. A. Gabriel, mining engineer who shot and killed Roy Shaw, San Francisco chauffeur, in a downtown hotel September 12, will be sentenced by Superior Judge Willis next Tuesday.

STRIKE BAN IS LEFT UP TO CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Failure of the railroad brotherhood chiefs to agree to absolute arbitration of all differences with the railroads during the period of the war will compel Congress to act to prevent any possibility of a general strike. Administration officials said today that while yesterday's conference was satisfactory as far as it went, it had not removed what might become a dangerous menace at any time.

It was realized that there is an element in all of the brotherhoods which is very much dissatisfied with the wage increase accepted at the time of the original negotiations. And while the present heads of the brotherhoods are in every way sincere in declaring that they will oppose any strikes during the war, they always face the possibility that the radical element of their organizations will get control. The present control of the brotherhoods will oppose strikes and will do all that is possible to keep their men working. But the radicals are continuing their agitation and when Congress meets it will have to take cognizance of this fact.

That the President will make definite recommendations to Congress on the railway situation is certain. He expected to renew his former suggestions of a permanent mediation and arbitration plan and to give the federal government "war powers" over the roads and their employees.

CATARRH

Quickly Ended by a Pleasant, Germ-Killing Antiseptic.

The little home-inhaler is made of hard rubber and can easily be carried in pocket or purse. It will last a lifetime. Into this inhaler you pour a few drops of Nuxated Iron.

This is absorbed by the antiseptic gas within and now you are ready to breathe it in over the germ-infested membrane of the throat. It will speedily begin its work of killing catarrhal germs. It is made of Australian eucalyptus combined with other antiseptics and is very pleasant to breathe.

It is guaranteed to banish catarrh, bronchitis, sore throat, croup, coughs and colds of every kind. It cleans out a stuffed-up head in two minutes.

Sold in The Great Four Co. and drug stores everywhere.

Complete outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Nuxated Iron, costs but little while extra bottles, if afterward needed, may be obtained of any drugstore. Advertisement.

WOMENS CLUBS

By Edna B. Kinard

When the first conference of the national woman's advisory committee appointed a few weeks ago by Secretary of the Navy Daniels with the war council and Secretary Daniels is held in Washington, D. C., on Monday, California will be ably represented by Mrs. George J. Denis of Los Angeles, a well-known club woman of Southern California. Those who received appointment to this important body of women who have been called into conference with the government heads number beside the California delegates Mrs. E. T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia, who has been named chairman; Mrs. George Dewey, Mrs. George Hartlett, Mrs. George Grayson, Washington; Mrs. W. H. Brooks, Baltimore; Mrs. Frederick D. Countess, Mrs. Bryan Lathrop, Chicago; Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, New York; Mrs. Henry R. Rea, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Mathe T. Scott, Bloomington, Ill.; Mrs. James M. Thomson, New Orleans; Mrs. French Vanderbilt, Newport; Mrs. Charles S. Hamlin, Boston.

Mrs. Denis, before leaving Tuesday for Washington, organized an interesting body of prominent women in Southern California, who will back her in whatever stand she may think advisable to take. Of the state group, Mrs. Ernest A. Bryant has been named treasurer and Mrs. Dean Mason secretary. The committee members who have been appointed by Mrs. Denis include Mrs. Henry B. Huntington, Mrs. J. L. Waller, Mrs. J. Nilsen Laurvik, Mrs. Rose V. S. Berry and Mrs. Frank S. Pitch of Buffalo, N. Y. "The Modern Revival of Arts and Crafts" will be discussed by Laurvik, director of the Palace of Fine Arts. Mrs. Joseph Fife is chairman of the program. At the business meeting which will follow the members will express themselves on a proposed amendment in regard to the endorsement of measures by the association.

Miss Gertrude Comfort has been appointed a member of the board of directors of the Association of the Blind, representing the California branch of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. Tomorrow the several scores of members will gather at the Palace of Fine Arts at the November luncheon and program. Honor will be done to John L. Waller, J. Nilsen Laurvik, Mrs. Rose V. S. Berry and Mrs. Frank S. Pitch of Buffalo, N. Y. "The Modern Revival of Arts and Crafts" will be discussed by Laurvik, director of the Palace of Fine Arts. Mrs. Joseph Fife is chairman of the program. At the business meeting which will follow the members will express themselves on a proposed amendment in regard to the endorsement of measures by the association.

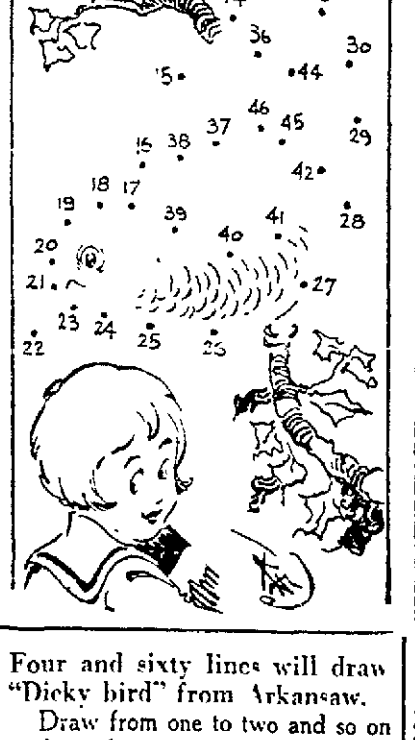

Presidents of all the clubs in the cities bordering the bay, together with the chairmen of the dramatic sections, are to be the guests of honor on Saturday, December 1, of the Speech Arts Association. The association, of which Miss Ida May Bradley of this city is president, is meeting at the Hotel Fairmont. It claims an interesting personnel of some seventy-five men and women who are students of literature and its oral presentation. The organization is growing steadily in numbers, the October program, adding a score of new members to the roll of those who are turning their attention to perfecting the art of speech.

Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt, president of Mills College, will be the speaker at the December meeting, offering a brilliant discussion on "English—Oral and Written."

The Americanization plan as outlined by Felix Schreiber and endorsed by the University of California and the Oakland board of education will be considered on Tuesday at Hotel Shattuck, when, at the invitation of Mrs. Frederick T. Robson, chairman of the Mobilized Women's Organizations, the members of the Alameda county women's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, meet. The conference is called for 2 o'clock. At 3 o'clock the executive bodies will adjourn to the auditorium of the Berkeley high school, where will be offered a patriotic program, with Dr. Aurelia Henry Reinhardt to be numbered among the several speakers.

Handkerchiefs are an important factor in education, according to the members of the Claremont School Mothers' Club. They have busied themselves hemming 200 of the small linen squares, dividing them impartially among the teachers in the lower grades for emergency use among the little tots and the West Oakland day nursery, where they are a necessary and popular article of baby toilets.

Dotty Puzzles

Four and sixty lines will draw "Dicky bird" from Arkansas. Draw from one to two and so on to the end.

BENEFIT BAZAAR PROVES SUCCESS

Expectations of those who had direction of the Thanksgiving Benefit Bazaar being held in Sacred Heart Auditorium, Forty-first and Grove streets, for the benefit of St. Joseph's Home for Deaf and Dumb Children are being realized. Based on the attendance of the opening night, tonight and tomorrow night will prove the affair a gratifying success.

A program has been prepared for the pleasure of the patrons each evening, and dancing will likewise add to the diversion. Tomorrow afternoon will be given over to the children who attend; there will be fish ponds, grab bags and automobile rides to attract their attention. The personnel of the various committees in charge follows:

Mrs. Agnes Kelly, chairman of arrangements; Miss M. Blanche Steele, secretary; Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mrs. M. A. Finley, Mrs. P. J. Nicholas, Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, Mrs. John Bowen, Mrs. J. J. Cox, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Vincent Westdorf, Misses Sara and Ella Flynn, Miss Rose Walsh and Mrs. J. Dickenson.

Sacred Heart Booth—Mrs. Carl Brockhagen, Mrs. Mary Irwin, Mrs. W. J. Handford, Mrs. N. De Luca, Mrs. Mary Doonan, Mrs. Robert Safely, Mrs. F. C. Dana, Mrs. Paul McCourtner, Mrs. McKee, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Frank Carey, Mrs. John Hyland, Mrs. James Garfield, Mrs. Peter Zavarero.

The woman's committee of the National Council of Defense has been obliged to make the official statement that it is not a placement bureau, although it is willing to do anything possible in every line of war effort. When it made a plea on behalf of the government for stenographic help and urged young college women to take up the study of stenography as a patriotic duty it did not mean that it would place young women in positions. It was cooperating with the United States civil service commission, 1724 F street, N. W., Washington, D. C., where information may be had in regard to stenographic positions with the government.

3 OAKLAND MEN WIN SEA LICENSES

Three more able seamen of Oakland, who have been graduated from the government's free navigation school officers' licenses in the new merchant marine, according to announcement made by steamboat inspection service officials today.

Charles E. Helms, 2735 Thirty-fifth avenue, has been licensed as master of sail, which is the highest rating that can be given to any seaman. He is now qualified to command any sailing vessel flying the American flag. Helms is the first man on the Pacific coast to be licensed as master of sail under the shipping board's plan of recruiting deck officers from the ranks of able seamen. Christian W. Nelson, also of Oakland, was recently given a license as master of steam.

Soveries Falk, 21 East Fourteenth street, and Emil P. Candella, 3226 Sixty-first avenue, have both received licenses as second mates.

A score of Oakland seamen still remain in the school, although eight have been graduated in the past month. Those men still in the school are expected to graduate and win licenses.

A Clear Skin is Not Always a Sign of Healthy Blood

Don't be deceived by a clear skin. An absence of pimples or skin eruptions is no sign that all is well with the blood.

Thin, watery blood, poor in iron and red cells, is evidenced by a falling off of the general health. Pallor—loss of weight and of appetite—listlessness—nervousness—uncertain temper—loss of interest in work and in play—these are some of the symptoms of blood poverty.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan
"The Red Blood Builder"

A true tonic and general health builder. It paves the way for the return of vigor, appetite and weight. It charges the blood with iron. And it creates thousands of strong, new red cells in the blood.

Blood that is rich in iron and red cells cures out poisons and waste tissue. It rejuvenates every organ of the body.

If you are run down or anemic, if any member of your family—young or old—is in need of a general tonic, try a course of Pepto-Mangan. An improvement will soon be noticed unless the patient has a serious organic disease.

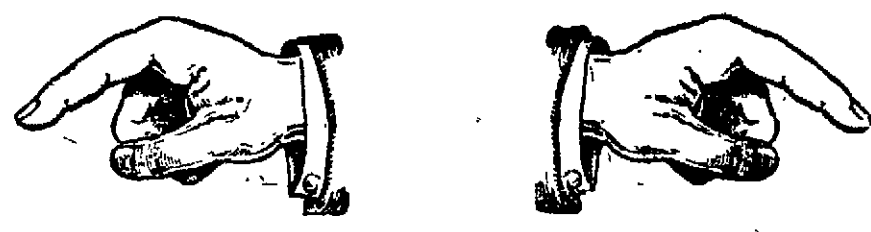

Pepto-Mangan is pleasant to the taste, and it does not disturb digestion; it cannot injure the teeth. For sale at all drug stores.

Friendly Warning—Gude's is the only true Pepto-Mangan. It is sold only as pictured here. For your own safety reject substitutes.

PHONE PACT NOW AWAITS RATIFICATION

Signed by H. D. Pillsbury, vice-president of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson, members of the President's Mediation Commission, and representatives of the Pacific Coast Council and Northwest Conference of Electrical Workers, an agreement which provides for an increased scale of wages for men and women employees and arbitration of all disputes during the period of the war has been concluded, and upon its ratification by the 6000 members of 68 unions in a referendum vote depends the settlement of the long-threatened strike of telephone operators.

The agreement, which affects California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Idaho, contains virtually the same increases in wages as were forecast by the Oakland TRIBUNE two weeks ago. The terms are:

Recognition of the 'girls' unions.

Wage increases for girls earning less than $50 a month from $7.50 a week to $9 in large centers; from $7.50 to $8, $8.50, $9.50 in smaller cities; girls earning more than $50 a month minimum weekly increase of 50 cents.

Wage increase for men of 12 1/2 per cent, or from $4 to $4.50 for journeymen and from $2.50 to $3 per diem for apprentices.

Negotiations for further increase and on failure to agree, arbitration that will be final.

Machinery for disposing of all disputes by mutual agreement of United States Government arbitrators in each district, by Federal Immigration commissioners or inspectors, as available.

The President's Mediation Commission is made a party to the agreement to secure conformity to the letter and spirit of the settlement.

While California operators are understood to regard the increase as satisfactory, the unions in the Northwest are not pleased. From Spokane comes word that the operators and electricians there will return to work only on direct orders from W. F. Delaney, or from their headquarters.

In Seattle the strikers declare that their representatives in San Francisco had no authority to approve the settlement, and that the referendum vote will have to decide whether or not they will return to work.

NEW ALIEN BAR

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Thomas D. McCarthy, United States marshal, has announced that enemy aliens will be barred from all buildings which command a view of New York harbor or the North and East rivers.

LECTURE TONIGHT

"Everyday Life in the Far East" is the subject of an address to be made tonight in the Clawson school, Thirty-second and Magnolia streets, by R. S. Wheeler, director of public lectures for the Board of Education. Wheeler has twice visited the Orient. On every occasion he made good use of his camera and from these snapshots lantern slides have been made. His lecture is illustrated by 150 beautifully colored views.

The lecture includes a glimpse of Korea as well as Japan and a trip to the Great Wall of China. The cities of Peking, Shanghai, and Hong Kong are shown and some pictures of the Japanese and Chinese troops which serve to bring out the traits of these diverse peoples.

GET COMMISSIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The 570 men who remained as members of the Presidio officers' training camp today know they have won commissions. Company commanders called the men into conference, one by one, and told them of their success.

Although the men were warned not to discuss their commissions, it became pretty well known that Jack Cudde, Kansas City and Pasadena millionaire, will be a captain after next Tuesday; that Edward C. Hanford and Lon Bond will be majors and Robert A. Roos a captain. But two majors commissions have been issued.

AVIATOR IS KILLED

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 23.—Lieutenant Resnati, Italian aviator stationed at Langley Field, has received a cablegram announcing the death of a 26-year-old brother, Michael, in a thrilling aerial battle over the Teuton line which is pushing into Italy. Michael Resnati had destroyed several Austro-German planes. His two sisters are Red Cross nurses, his father has gone to the front with the Italian medical corps and his mother is nursing wounded in the Italian hospitals.

SIFTING MYSTERY

Police inspectors today are making a quiet investigation into the mystery of a placard which hung on the wall in the corridor of the Municipal Auditorium last night bearing the announcement, "Please return all rented dress suits by 9 o'clock in the morning," and which was purported to have been placed by a local dress suit emporium.

At any rate, there were a large number of mysterious appearing suit boxes in the corridor of the city hall this morning. Inspector Tom Woods declared that he will sift the matter to the bottom.

THE HOUR OF OPPORTUNITY.

The increase in the maritime trade of Pacific Coast ports is certain to be as great after the war is over as it has been during the last two years. Peaceful industries in the different lands of the Far East, in spite of the war demands on labor and shipping, are developing at a remarkable rate, preparatory to sending their products into the normal channels of world commerce.

THE TRIBUNE recently has called attention to the new programs that have been launched in East Asia for a larger participation in international trading, particularly with the United States. Now we have a report from Consul DeWitt C. Poole on industrial and development activities in the southern Philippine islands. Space permits only reference to the more salient features here, but these are impressive.

A rubber-growing project under consideration calls for an investment of $25,000,000. A rubber plantation on the island of Basilan has 72,000 Para rubber trees growing, of which 22,000 have come into bearing and yield 90 kilos of rubber per day. An American plantation in Mindanao has 90,000 trees, of the Castilloa variety. On the same island there is a Japanese hemp plantation of 15,000 acres, with 2,000,000 "hills" of hemp growing. One American-owned plantation nearby has 160,000 hills of hemp, 48,000 rubber trees and 16,000 coconut trees, and seven other American plantations have 700,000 hills of hemp.

Scientific cultivation of the coconut trees for copra and the oil extracted therefrom is a comparatively new thing and is going forward at a rapid rate. Two large oil expressing plants are now in operation in the Philippines. Before the war Marseilles was the principal market for copra, but lately San Francisco and New York have assumed importance in this trade. Cultivation of the coconut is not only an industry in Mindanao but in Sulu, Cotabato, Lanao, Zamboanga and other Philippine provinces. Lumber mills had attained great prosperity before the war and are only awaiting shipping facilities to resume operations on an unprecedented scale. Jungle products such as gutta percha, gum copal and vegetable oils are being gathered on a comprehensive scale. Cattle-raising and general farming and other industries are keeping pace with the education of the natives and the investment of capital.

All this activity in the Philippines is in the vast district between the fifth and eighteenth parallels, north latitude, which a decade ago was a wilderness so far as modern industry is concerned. It is a great storehouse from which modern methods will draw a huge volume of the commodities of civilized trade.

The greater portion of the Philippine export trade ought to come to the United States, for which we should send an equal amount of manufactured products in exchange. When the war is over and the vast new merchant tonnage is at the service of peaceful commerce nothing can prevent an active trade with the Philippines but indifference and neglect.

Will the port of San Francisco Bay be ready for the new era? Will facilities for berthing the heavily laden ships and handling their cargoes be available?

Oakland has a potential answer in the affirmative; will she translate it into reality? The ships from the Orient and the Philippines, from the Straits Settlements and India, from the Ladrones, the Moluccas and Australia, should land on this side of the bay, directly at the terminals of the transcontinental railways.

Shall the western waterfront be developed as a great unit of our harbor and rail terminal facilities, so that this city may realize its true destiny, or shall it be destroyed as a harbor, alienated from public control and turned over to private industry?

Puget Sound ports, Los Angeles and San Diego are watching for the answer and not caring if Oakland is unimpaired of her opportunity.

STRONG MEN.

The tactics employed by the British troops in France in their successful assault of the famous "Hindenburg Line" brings the soldier back nearer to the estimation in which he was held before the present war started. Individual and organized "dash," gallantry and military prowess was given a larger opportunity than perhaps in any previous battle.

Of course, the mechanical "tanks" were there to tear away the mechanical entanglements erected for the enemy's protection, but after they had accomplished their part—in which the crews were important factors—the infantry and cavalry got busy. Cavalry detachments attacked artillery crews with the saber and captured their pieces! Such a thing was not heard of before in the present war.

This battle and the manner in which it was fought directs attention to a recent statement of Major General Kuhn, U. S. Army:

"However great a part material resources and munitions have played and are playing in the war, one fact must not be overlooked, and that is the fighting man. He is just as important and necessary as ever, and the demands that will be made upon his nerves and endurance will be greater than ever before."

There has been much talk of the warfare of chemistry and the war of finance, all of which has been to the point. But the fighting man is still essential. When the cunning and demoniacal inventions of science fail, as fail they must when depended upon alone, human initiative, courage and physical fitness win the day.

A TEST OF FINANCIAL STRENGTH.

The "bottom" seems to have been reached in a condition of the New York stock exchange, reflected in every financial center of the country, which first became noticeable about two weeks ago. Now that it is over, representative financial men will probably talk a little more freely about what was in their mind. They may not say that it was actual anxiety, but there was a distinct feeling of uncertainty.

Every one who reads the stock reports observed that prices were being forced down. Speculative stocks were not alone affected, but listed stocks of the most substantial nature went down from 3 to 6 points in a day and gilt-edge bonds from 1 to 2 points a day.

What were the reasons for this alarming downward trend? Mr. George E. Roberts, formerly director of the United States mint, and now assistant to the president of the National City Bank of New York, says that any man's complete answer is only a guess, but he gives the following obvious reasons, which are quoted from the New York Times' Sunday magazine:

(1) The demands of the Liberty Loan. Every one has subscribed or pledged to subscribe about all the spare cash he can muster for the coming few months. (2) The collateral demands of the war, the Red Cross, the hundred and one charities which reach forth on every hand to waylay the pocketbook. (3) The vast needs for new and quick industrial investments to meet the munition and supply demands of the war. (4) The uncertainty of the immediate future. Those who have available cash hesitate to invest it in stocks or bonds, even at the present ridiculously low prices. They would rather wait a bit and see what the winter brings forth.

Now such factors as these have in times passed produced financial panics. What was the situation two weeks ago? A prominent New York banker is quoted by the Times somewhat explosively as follows:

"No panic! Nonsense! That is exactly what we have been through—a panic. The truth is that we have tested the Federal Reserve Banking act and found it sound. Such a condition as we have had the last week, if encountered in former years, would have meant a panic—perhaps only a panic like we had in 1907, but a panic nevertheless. We have weathered the storm; we have come through safe and sound; not a failure; not a collapse, not even of any little jobbing house; not one single bank high or low even threatened with nasty rumors. It is a triumph of the new Federal organization."

This statement, borne out in detail by the record, is a reassurance for the future. Stability has been given the American financial system until it is able to stand the strain of the Liberty Loans, government calls for short-term credits, and other demands for cash, the severity of which was not until a few weeks ago anticipated by even the most imaginative person, and to finance numerous gigantic industrial enterprises for producing war material. And it was able successfully to withstand the combined assault of all these tasks upon the stock and bond market.

That this has been demonstrated without misfortune is psychological insurance for the future, creating a confidence that in itself will be a safeguard against panic.

No mention has been made of the known efforts of enemy interests to precipitate financial confusion at a moment which seemed to them favorable. But they are now in a position to report to the Kaiser that America is as strong financially as she is in manhood, material resources, and the courage to fight for the right.

REMINDER OF A LOST ART.

Somewhere in the American army a soldier boy will wear a pair of stockings that ought to be preserved for what they represent. A Nebraska woman raised the sheep, sheared its fleece, carded the wool, spun and dyed the yarn and knitted the socks, which she presented to the Red Cross. Yes, she belongs to a bygone generation. Fifty years ago, when she was young, her feet would have attracted little notice and called forth no comment. Such operations were then carried on as a matter of routine on every farmstead. Not only was wool so handled, but flax was raised, bleached, reeled, heckled, pulled, spun and woven into cloth for home uses. Modern factories have destroyed this household industry, but the possession of a tablecloth or bedspread woven by grandmother, or her mother, reminds many a home circle of the simpler life of the nation. The utmost rigor of hardships recently visited upon us is ease and comfort when contrasted with the daily experiences of that time. The lost art of home spinning and weaving is not likely to be revived generally, but it is helpful to the reminder now and then of the ways things were done not such a long time ago in America.—Omaha Bee.

NOTES and COMMENT

It must be reasonably apparent to Professor Nearing that there is a disinclination out this way to listen to the expounding of his ideas as to the error of doing what the country has found it expedient to do to thwart the Hun.

A Chicago meat packer is reported as expressing himself to the effect that meat prices may be cut fifty per cent without doing material damage to the packers. It is a matter of satisfaction that the packers are on velvet. The fear all along has been that they would not like it if prices were reduced.

The authorities should get busy right away, and devise an adequate treatment for those who conduct swindles in connection with Liberty loans.

Unless somebody proposes a "breathless" day we shall be able to negotiate these other abstaining days with some success.

The news that no telephone strike is to be pulled off is heartening. Under the most amiable arrangement there are telephone troubles enough. It is appalling to think what they might be with one end of the line deliberately perturbed.

Has it ever been noticed that the man who doesn't know a crop when he sees it is vastly more solicitous for the farmer on account of the continued dry spell than the farmer himself? As a matter of fact, worrying about a continued dry spell here in California persists as a habit. Irrigation has taken from the agriculturist most of the distress that afflicted him in the days of the wheat era.

The statement is made that it costs $6,661.66 a day to run the State University. Such glorious victories as that last one over Washington are worth it.

The point has been made that though trains have stopped running on the through Siberian line, most of the trainmen haven't. That would particularly apply to such as find themselves in a riot zone.

The allied forces went through the Hun machine, Sir Julian lent both his name and his military genius to the occasion.

The increase of pay for mail carriers has a chance of getting through. It is a measure of justice. The letter carrier, since the parcel post came in vogue, has been too much a beast of burden for the money in it.

The San Francisco mint is working day and night, turning out the smallest red coin in such quantities as to make it utterly impossible for California to get back to its old status of spending the money. Older Californians are apt to take account of this irony of fate.

Anent the accession of Colonel Roosevelt to the editorial force of the Kansas City Star the Houston Post says: "Hello! T. R. has joined the staff of the Kansas City Star. The Star was once content to shine. It now wants to blaze."

Editor Johnson of the Fullerton Tribune laments because there was a Sunday school convention at Orange Friday attended by less than a dozen people from Fullerton, was a football game at Santa Ana the same day drew a crowd of 700 from Fullerton. Well, what had best be done about it?

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Holtville subscription to the Y. M. C. A. war fund is likely to go much more than the allotted $1200, it was indicated today when it became known that W. L. Hodges, Monrovia banker, who has a large ranch north of town, has offered a fine registered Holstein bull for the fund. Mr. Hodges is planning to have an auction about the middle of December. At the sale the bull will be put up for bids and the money he brings will be turned over to the local Y. M. C. A. war fund committee. The bull is said to be worth about $1000.—Holtville Tribune.

The employees of the Chico Diamond Match Company set the example of giving the proceeds of one day's work on Thanksgiving Day to the Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus war funds and all the other factories in the United States seem likely to follow suit.—Chico Enterprise.

The pleasure that came to Northern California from the visit of Governor Stephens to this locality seems to have awakened an interest throughout this section. It was the first time a governor had visited so many places of limited population. It seems that some of them had not time to give this section a call, while others were engaged in more material things. But the present governor, though governor by accident, came out to see the people of the north and they certainly have appreciated the call.—Colusa Sun.

On last Tuesday, Mrs. G. W. Darling, who resides at 2513 Thirtieth street, reported that her house was burglarized during her absence and that a set of toilet articles was stolen. Nothing else in the house was touched. Last evening when she started to build a fire in the heating stove, she discovered the remnants of her set, it having been partially destroyed by fire. After reflecting on the temperamental of her husband on last Tuesday, she called up the police and told them she was mistaken about the burglary.—Sacramento News.

"Let us alone!" was the cry of business in the prehistoric era of a dozen years ago. "Regulate us absolutely!" is the cry of business now. The latest example is the resolution of the American Tanners' Association, appealing to the government to take complete and dictatorial control of their business and to set and enforce its prices as the only remedy against the high cost of shoes.—Fresno Republican.

SUBSTITUTE No. 10,001

MESSAGE OF THE CHIMES

All summer long the brazen bugle-calls have rung. Of war's exploit and war's mad deeds their notes have sung. Now, through the clangor and the flare bright threads of silver steal—The Campanile bells with their sweet, soft appeal. So calm, so mild, they fall through evening's pulsing air. They lift our gloom and dread, they free our hearts of care. Yet those clear bugle-calls a well-loved message give; In high heroic tones they bid proud Freedom live. Serene, secure in climes where war-worn serfs now groan; Their brazen voices tell of tyranny o'erthrown!

Berkeley, November, 1917.

AN AMERICAN-SIZED JOB.

Our war task is becoming bigger and bigger. We Americans have always had a fondness for big undertakings—for doing big things in a big way. Bigness is said to be our aboriginal. The war has given us an opportunity such as we never had before. The job is plenty big enough for America—and America is big enough for the job. We'll see it through.—Philadelphia Evening Telegraph.

TODAY 20 YEARS AGO

The Hayward electric road applied to the city council for permission to extend its tracks on Franklin street to the city wharf. Ira Bishop of Piedmont was announced as the first head of the consolidated street car systems of the Realty Syndicate. Fabiola Hospital Association celebrated its twentieth anniversary with a banquet and musical entertainment. Horv's comedy "A Trip Through Chinatown" played at the Macdonough theater. Lieutenant Cobblewick won medal at the monthly shoot of Company F, Fifth Regiment, N. G. C.

"THOUGH A REPUBLICAN."

Massachusetts selected Governor Samuel Walker McCall, who is an excellent public servant, though a Republican. The governor of the old Bay State is a fine example of New England patriotism. He found the Federal government rather slow about defense measures, so he called the other New England governors together and they formulated and put into operation a defense program of their own. McCall is a man of old school manners, a scholar in politics, and there is a chance that the Republicans will nominate him for the Presidency in 1920.—Greenville News.

THE JESTER

The Afterthought.

"Your Honor," said the arrested chauffeur, "I tried to warn the man, but the horn wouldn't work." "Then why didn't you slacken speed rather than run over him?" A light seemed to dawn on the prisoner. "That's one on me," he answered. "I never thought of that!"—Case and Comment.

Difficult Feet.

The schoolgirl was sitting with her feet stretched far out into the aisle, and was busily chewing gum, when the teacher espied her. "Mary!" called the teacher sharply. "Yes, ma'am?" questioned the pupil. "Take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in!"—Florida Times-Union.

Efficiency.

Willis—Bump's office is run absolutely on system. Gillis—Indeed? Willis—Yes; they tell me there is even a recess of ten minutes each day for the clerks to borrow money from one another.—St. Louis Republic.

Well Covered.

"Scarcity of coal doesn't bother us much." "How do you keep this house warm?" "Oh, we have a blanket mortgage on the place."—Exchange.

ALIEN BAR WILL HALT SUGAR PLANT

Enforcement of President Wilson's order to state and county officers to keep aliens without a certain prescribed distance from docks and wharves will put the California and Hawaiian Sugar Refining Company's plant at Crockett out of commission, it was learned today. Sheriff R. K. Veale of Contra Costa county made the discovery when he learned that 500 aliens were employed in the refinery within the outlined zone.

The major portion of the bay sugar output and a considerable portion of the state output passes through the Crockett refinery.

Organizations Unite to Remember Oakland's Gallant Fighting Men

Plans Started by Moose Spread to Whole Municipality

Oakland's boys have not been forgotten. Thirty-two civic, commercial and fraternal organizations proved this last night. At an enthusiastic meeting at which representatives from practically every important organization in the city were in attendance plans were launched for a great "drive" to raise funds for the Oakland batteries and National Guard companies.

"We have remembered the fellow who had to go—no, we must remember the fellow who volunteered," these words are the slogan of the big general committee engaged in plans for raising the fund for the home boys. The plan, started in a meeting of Oakland Lodge of Moose, two weeks ago, when Captain Walter J. Petersen addressed the order, has spread to every part of the city. Last night's meeting in the courtroom of Judge George Samuels started the work. Today the executive committee is busy on plans for a great tag day, to be followed possibly in the evening by a big free entertainment at the Municipal Auditorium, at which the public urged to volunteer aid to the big fund needed for the task of properly remembering Oakland's soldiers.

FUND WILL GROW.
The final details of the tag day and the entertainment will be completed Monday night, when another meeting of the general committee will be held in Judge Samuels' court. At this time more lodges will also be represented and the fund started last night on the "nest egg," probably will have grown to a considerable amount. "This is the most important thing Oakland can do at the present time," declared Judge Samuels, in addressing the meeting, of which he was elected chairman, last night. "I have been in these trenches. I know what it means to a bunch of fellows when one or two is remembered with a box and the others have to stand and look on, feeling that they have been forgotten. I have a boy in the army—of course his mother and I will see that he is remembered—but that is not all. I want the other boys to be remembered, too. It's not fair that because one man belongs to a lodge he should be remembered and the other forgotten. They're all American soldiers. I want every man from Oakland to know that we at home have not forgotten the service he has done his country."

INCEPTION OF PLAN.
"Oakland has two batteries, B and E, and two National Guard companies—all volunteers—to be remembered and it's up to Oakland to do it. Los Angeles and San Diego have been remembering their boys, while the Oakland boys have thought the town had forgotten them. Now it's up to us to get busy with this work." William J. Hamilton explained the

U. S. AGENTS PROBE RUNS ON STORES

Agents for the Department of Justice and operatives of the United States Food Administration started today on a round-up of German representatives in the United States who are responsible for "runs" on household supplies and the production of confusion and panic in market conditions.

During recent weeks there have been runs on sugar, salt, matches, laundry blueing and canned goods. Evidence in the hands of government operators show that these runs were for the most part the work of Germans or pro-German traders who gave out impressions to customers that there was a shortage in certain commodities and thereby produced abnormal demand.

NONE BUT THE BRAVE DESERVE ARMY SHIRT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—A raid on Market street merchants selling government military goods was made yesterday by Captain A. H. Polhemus and United States Deputy Marshal J. W. Jensen on the army and navy store at 407 Market street, S. Liebold & Co., 217 Market street, and the Spiro Company, 309 Market street. Two huge quarter-master auto trucks were lined with uniform shirts, brushes, shoes and other paraphernalia of the cavalry and infantry. This will be followed today by other raids in an attempt by the government to prevent the sale of such contraband and it is reported that the intelligence bureau will go further and men in civilian clothes wearing army hats or shirts will be stopped on the street and required to remove them, as has already been done in Texas and Arizona.

IN AIR SERVICE

MARTINEZ, Nov. 23.—Assistant District Attorney A. Carlson has received notice of his appointment to a commission in the aviation service and today he sent in his resignation. Hiram E. Jacobs, police justice in Richmond, was named to succeed Carlson, his appointment taking place January 1.

MRS. HOWE'S STORY SAID TO BE TRUE

That ample evidence exists to substantiate the story of Mrs. Walter Chadbourne Howe that an eleven-year campaign of slander had been conducted against her by Will H. Brooks, the wealthy orange grower whom she shot and killed in Porterville last Monday, is the statement made by Attorney Frank McGowan, who returned to San Francisco today to prepare his case for her defense. At the preliminary hearing in Visalia, he says, there will be none of this evidence presented, but it will be in readiness for the trial in the Superior Court.

While in Porterville, McGowan interviewed people who were in Mrs. Howe's company on the morning of the day of the shooting and others who had talked with her a few days before. It is understood that evidence of erratic conduct due to some strain was secured. On Saturday of last week, it was learned, her peculiar conduct led to an altercation with the management of the hotel where she has been in the habit of staying during her visits to Porterville.

ASKS DATA ON STREET PLANS

Steps will be taken immediately by Commissioner Soderberg of the street department to obtain from the board of supervisors definite information regarding the type of pavement the county officials will endorse for the improvement of East Fourteenth street, from Fifth street to One Hundred and Eighth avenue.

Explanation was made today by the management of the California Bitulithic Company that Edward Grendley was not in the employ of that concern at the time a petition was circulated among the property owners along the thoroughfare to have bitulithic pavement laid, as the result of statements made by Superintendent of Streets shown to the effect that Grendley had drawn up the preliminary proceedings to provide for bitulithic.

"I am very glad they have made that statement," was the only comment Brown made.

Representatives of the Melrose Improvement Club advised the council that there is no inclination on the part of the organization to force the work being done this year if the $25,000 set aside for the preliminary proceedings is needed for other purposes as proposed recently to

Society News

Open house to the men of the army and navy is to be observed Thanksgiving day in many Oakland homes, for the list of hostesses at dinner that day is a long one on which appear the names of many matrons of the east bay cities. From groups of three and four, up to the twenties they range, the hostesses planning, according to the capacities of their homes and an equal complement of the younger girls to be guests. Their aim is to extend the best of their hospitality to sons of mothers elsewhere in the land, who perhaps at this very time may be opening their homes to Oakland boys.

One of the interesting gatherings is to be at the home of Mrs. William H. Moller, who assisted by her daughters, will entertain a coterie of men from the U. S. T. C. at dinner. A group of the younger girls who have been knitting for some time will be used on waterfront dredging in connection with the proposed Union Construction Company lease. They would be willing, they said, to have work done next summer.

present their guests, each with a knitted garment, upon this occasion. Mrs. A. K. Munson, whose son Clinton Munson is with the aviation corps in Dayton, Ohio, will have a group at dinner at her home in Summit street.

Mrs. J. W. McClemonds has asked a few of the "boys" from Mare Island to share her hospitality upon that day. A coterie of the men from the Presidio camp will be guests at the home of Mrs. B. J. Smith, who will entertain her family at dinner that day, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Scupham, the Misses Isabel and Jean Scupham and Mr. and Mrs. George Lackie.

Then there will be a group of ten of the officers from the training camp at Mrs. Harry East Miller's home who have been bidden at the invitation of Mrs. Miller's cousin, Lieutenant Alexander Adair, for the day.

And so the list goes on, and everywhere the soldier and sailor boys will be extended the hospitality of east bay matrons upon that day of thanksgiving.

A group of matrons who comprise the personnel of the Wednesday bridge club were guests Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John R. Scupham. Those who were assembled about the card tables were: Mrs. Guy C. Earl, Mrs. A. K. Munson, Mrs. E. C. Morrison, Mrs. A. H. Glascock, Mrs. Frank B. Ogden, Mrs. James A. Johnson, Mrs. Charles Rowe, Mrs. E. W. McClemonds, Mrs. George Shaw, Mrs. E. D. Yorker, president, and the hostess, Mrs. John R. Scupham.

The marriage of Miss Memory Doubleday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Doubleday of Piedmont, is to be solemnized tomorrow, when the bride elect will wed Wilfred C. Ferguson at San Francisco. The ceremony will be a quiet one, attended by immediate members of the family.

A number of matrons who have met for seasons past informally are to be guests of Mrs. Frederick W. Morse the first week of December. Form of the program and those who meet upon these occasions are: Mrs. Millard J. Layman, Mrs. H. S. Kegan, Mrs. George Chevalier, Mrs. Bert Hubbard, Mrs. J. C. Ewing, Mrs. Raymond A. Perry, Mrs. Walter Scott, Mrs. William A. Schrock, Mrs. A. J. Snyder and Mrs. George Rothganger.

To add to the Belgian relief fund a benefit performance is to be given tomorrow evening in the Adelphi club house in Alameda. The play is entitled "Hallowell Haunt" and was written by Miss Janet Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merrill.

All of the members of the east bay high school students at the same will participate as at the first performance. Mrs. W. V. Tibbitts and Mrs. Arthur Merrill Brown are to have charge of the arrangements.

Charles S. Dodge, whose bride was Miss Hazel Serous, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul O. Dietzen, has enlisted with the Coast Defense and is taking a course in the School of Navigation in San Francisco. Dodge is a member of the firm of E. J. Dodge Company of San Francisco.

Mrs. Oscar Fitzallen Long and her daughter, Miss Amy Long, are at their home again in Piedmont, having just returned from Camp Lewis. Mrs. Long is a member of the David L. Stone, U. S. A., and also of the Stone. They were entertained by many of their friends in army circles and by a number of the younger matrons of the service set who live in that vicinity.

Cards from across the ocean bring word of the birth of Richard Allen Richards, in Hankow, China, October 18. The baby boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart S. Richards (Alice Parker) who have made their home in the far east for some time.

A house warming was given by Mrs. George William Howson Jr. at her home Tuesday when the young matron entertained a party. An informal program was enjoyed by the guests during the course of the afternoon. Mrs. Albert Reed was heard in several readings, while Mrs. Walter Cohlek was soloist. Among the more serious questions of the day which came up was that of saving food and an appeal was made by Mrs. H. F. Jackson to all to help in the work of the national food administration. The refreshments were in keeping with the "over tea" of the present day. Those assisting Mrs. Howson were Mrs. Jessie Goerner and Mrs. James Casey. Some of the guests were Mrs. Clara Loren Johnson, Mrs. Edwin C. Graft, Mrs. William B. Kyle, Mr. Guy F. Street, Mrs. Earnest A. Richards, Mrs. H. P. Brown, Mrs. James C. Murdoch, Mrs. C. E. Forbes, Mrs. Byron Dunham and Mrs. W. Blackledge.

One of the most interesting wedding ceremonies of the coming week will be that of Miss Priscilla Hall, daughter of the late Judge S. P. Hall and Mrs. H. H. of Oakland and George Waldo Wood Jr., which will take place Wednesday afternoon in the presence of the immediate members of the two families. Rev. William Day Simonds, pastor of the First Unitarian church of this city, is to perform the marriage ceremony. There will be no attendance upon the couple and the ceremony is to be performed at the home of the bride-elect's mother, in Fourteenth street.

The betrothal of Miss Hall and Weeks was announced last Sunday and came as a surprise to a very large circle of friends of the family. Weeks, who was a San Francisco attorney, is now in training in the Second Reserve Officers' camp at the Presidio.

Following a custom which was inaugurated many years ago by the late Mrs. Susan L. Mills, one of the founders of Mills College, the "Mrs. Mills Dinner" will be given by the college on the campus to be followed by an informal reception tendered by the president and faculty members of the college. There will be dancing and a musical program. It was the custom of Mrs. Mills for a number of years to observe her birthday by giving a turkey dinner to the girls of the college. Following her death, this custom has always been carried out in honor of her memory. Because of conservation plans, the dinner this year is not to be quite on such an elaborate scale as heretofore.

Early in December Mrs. Martha Ehrenberg and her daughter, Miss Harriet Ehrenberg, are expected home from New York, where they have been visiting Miss Agnes Ehrenberg. Recently they were joined by Mrs. August Schilling.

Uncle Sam's Food Bulletin

SWEET POTATO BREAD.
One of the cheapest war breads possible is sweet potato bread. But that does not prevent it from being one of the sweetest substitutes for wheat bread, says Uncle Sam's bulletin from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission, working in co-operation with this newspaper to conserve the nation's food resources. Here's a good recipe for this bread:

2 cups cooked and mashed sweet potato.
2 cups sifted wheat flour (more if flour is soft).
1/2 cup lukewarm water (this will not be needed if liquid yeast is used).
1 cake dry or compressed yeast, or 1/2 cup liquid yeast.
1 tablespoon sugar.
1 tablespoon salt.
2 tablespoons shortening (if desired).
All measurements are level full. Wash thoroughly and boil in their skins 3 sweet potatoes of medium size. Cook until they are very tender. Drain, peel, and mash them while hot, putting them through a colander to free the mass from lumps. Allow the mashed potato to cool until lukewarm. To this add the salt, the sugar and about one cup of the flour and mix thoroughly. Next add the yeast, which has been rubbed smooth in a cup with four tablespoons of lukewarm water. Cover and place the bowl out of the way of drafts and at a temperature of from 80 to 88 degrees F. Allow the mixture to rise for two hours or until very light. To this sponge, which now will be found to be quite soft, add the melted shortening and the remainder of the flour, kneading thoroughly until a smooth and elastic dough has been formed. The dough must be very stiff, since hot potato retains a large amount of water, which causes the dough to soften as it rises. Do not add more water to the dough unless it is absolutely necessary in order to incorporate all the flour. Set the dough back to rise again for one hour or until light. Mold into loaves and place in warmed and greased pans set in a warm place for about one hour or until the loaves have risen to their usual size. Bake in a moderate oven for 50 to 60 minutes.

MORAN IS HELD

"SING SONG" HERE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The "sing-song" has come to San Francisco to stay. The "sing-song" is now a new species of bird but a big public gathering where all raise their voices in song from the classics to ragtime. The first "sing-song" held a few nights ago proved such prime entertainment for those attending that a demand was made that these affairs be repeated at specified intervals.

The "sing-song" is the latest form of community singing, with the audience selecting its own songs to a great extent. The first "sing-song" here was held in the Civic Auditorium.

CONFESSES CRIME

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Reingold A. Faust, a naturalized German, has confessed to a bomb in the Auditorium theater last Friday during a grand opera performance. The crudely constructed bomb did not explode, but its discovery caused much confusion among the audience. Faust, who was formerly a postoffice clerk, also admitted, the police said, that he had written blackmailing letters to James E. Forgan and Frank O. Wetmore, chairman of the board and president respectively of the First National Bank of Chicago.

TAKE INSURANCE

CAMP LEWIS, Wash., Nov. 23.—A big demand for $10,000 policies under the army and navy insurance act is encouraging officers in charge of the insurance at the National army camp here. These officers report that not only commissioned and non-commissioned officers are signing for the $10,000 policies, but practically all of the privates who are obtaining the insurance as well. A recent capitulation of figures showed $51,115,000 taken out in policies here. A lack of application blanks held the campaign back for some time, but it is now progressing favorably.

SANTA CLARA SLIGHT FAVORITE OVER STANFORD TEAM

Smooth Working Backfield Is Main Cardinal Strength; Missionites' Pack Is Fast

Attendance Prospects at "Big Game" Are Worrying Financial Authorities.

Stanford and Santa Clara alumni will gather with the students of the two institutions tomorrow for the "big game." Whether the attendance at the contest will justify the name of "big game" is yet to be seen, but the followers of both teams are confident that the feature rugby game of the year will overshadow the California-Washington football game from a point of interest and spectacular gathering.

From the standpoint of the ordinary spectator, the game will probably have more to recommend it as a great spectacle than did the feature contest at Berkeley. The rooting sections of Stanford and Santa Clara will be fairly evenly matched, and from advance notices sent out the rooting stunts of the followers will certainly be a greater attraction than was the stunt of the California bleacherites in the Washington game.

As for the game itself, that, too, promises to be a spectacular affair. In spite of the fact that the general public seems to favor American football, the local fans are pretty well acquainted with rugby, and the game should be a spectacular one. The offensive strength and defensive weakness of both teams makes the outcome exceedingly uncertain, although Santa Clara is a slight favorite.

Experts have rated the two teams as equal on offensive strength and have estimated their defense as weak. Just how the two teams will stack up on the day of the contest is not a great deal to do with the value of a player, there are many who think that the heavy team has a decided advantage, especially in the scrum. The Santa Clara scrum will average 137 pounds and have a thirteen-pound advantage in weight over the Stanford scrum. In the backfield the two teams are pretty evenly balanced, the Stanford boys averaging 162 and the Santa Clara team averaging 161, a difference of only two pounds.

As for experience, the Stanford team is composed of older players, and the Santa Clara boys have received long training in rugby. The two Muldoon boys and Howell, products of the east bay region, have worked before under the name of "Mandersons," the present coach, and know the game well.

While most of the Stanford team is made up of boys who have had wide experience in football, there are at least three freshmen who will get into the line-up. This is the same number of first-year men as Santa Clara will start in the contest. Most of the latter have no experience in the game, but this is not borne out by an examination of the individual players.

The Stanford authorities are exceedingly anxious as to the financial outcome of the game. An editorial in the Stanford student paper states that applications for tickets from many of the student house organizations have amounted to less than a dozen. While alumni of both institutions are expected to swell the migration to the farm tomorrow, the students will form the biggest unit among the spectators, and to make the rosters' stunts effective a great proportion of the two student bodies must be present.

A special train will leave Third and Townsend, San Francisco, for Palo Alto and the big rugby game tomorrow afternoon, arriving at Palo Alto at 2 p. m. The game starts at 2:45. Tickets for the Santa Clara-Stanford contest can be obtained at the Stanford campus and Jim Street contest. High school boys and enlisted men get in at reduced rates.

Ban Johnson In Danger of a Big Tumble

By H. C. HAMILTON, United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Ban Johnson's position as "chief of baseball" was challenged today as never before since he became president of the American League. It is a line of attack which will run the entire works next morning when the big leagues get to the annual meetings. Troubles of minor leagues and baseball in general will come up at these meetings, but on the face of things as they now stand, it appears Johnson will not have full say in settlement of the baseball problem.

Pointed to statements of Governor Tener and others likely connected with baseball, reproaching Johnson for his now famous on-base exemption statement. Baseball has shown itself to be patriotic so far.

President Dunn of the Cleveland club, whose team has suffered most heavily from the draft, has not uttered a whimper. In fact, he has offered his entire construction company to the government. He is a contractor of some proportions. He has lost more than $100,000 in the season and will have to make up the loss and others from his employees in other interests.

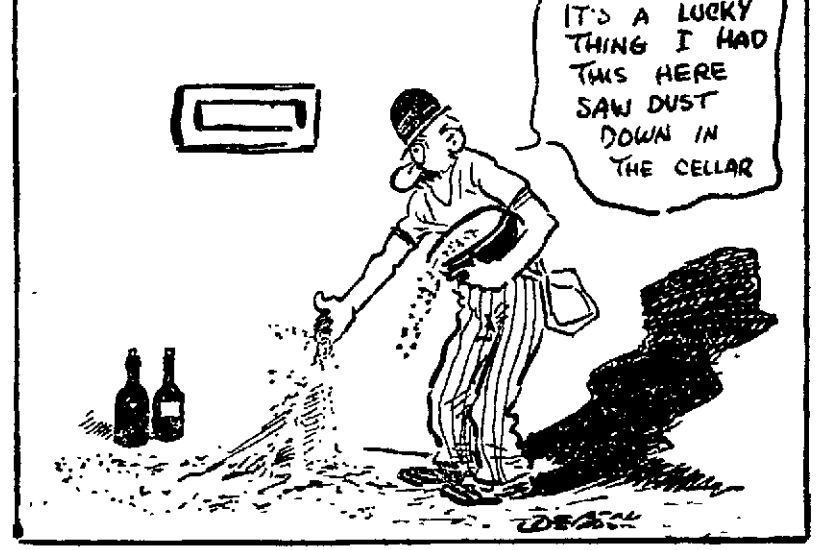

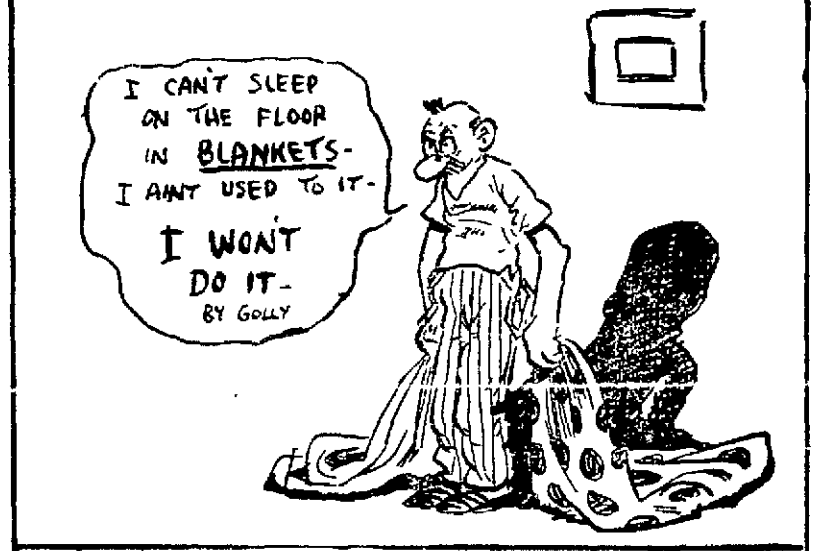

Captain T. L. Huston, part owner of the Yankees, is serving in France. Hank Cowley and Rabbit Maranville, two stars of the Boston Braves, voluntarily went into separate branches of the service. Harry Barry, manager of the Red Sox, is in the navy and with him went Chick Shorten, one of his outfielders.

Fitcher, Arnet of Washington, according to President Ben Miner, will be drafted. Joe Jenkins of the White Sox is now in a southern training camp and Jim Scott is expected to be commissioned in the new army.

The Athletics, just on the point of building into a real baseball club, have many of their best men and will have to start all over again.

Indians Look Weak Against Pennsy Squad

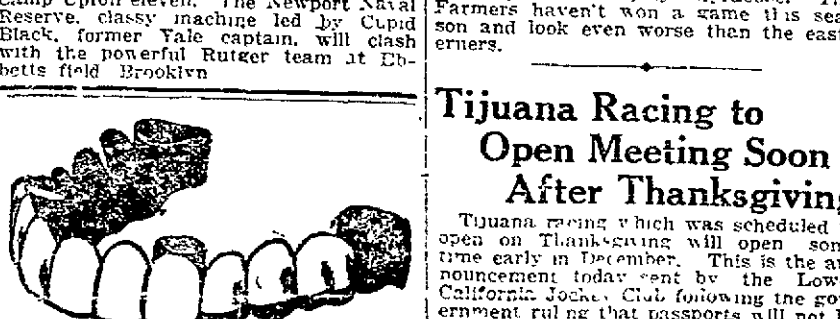

Eastern Football in Its Usual Deadened State Preliminary to Thanksgiving Games.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Football lapses tomorrow into the desultory stage preceding the big game always scheduled for Thanksgiving Day. In the entire list of games in the east, from high school to big university, not a game stands out that will have any bearing on the title point for the year.

Pennsylvania meets Carlisle in the only entertaining contest between eastern colleges and the Indians have made such a little of football this year and they are hardly considered as opponents for the team that has come so far after a hard year.

There will be an inter-sectional clash of some importance at Washington, Pa., when the Washington and Jefferson aggregation will go into action against the Notre Dame team.

Two service games are scheduled for Nov. 24. The New York Naval Reserve will send its team against the Camp Upton eleven. The Newport Naval Reserve, which is a strong team, will play the Black, former Yale captain, will clash with the powerful Rutgers team at Rutgers field Brooklyn.

Basketball Is Next For High School Squads

Interclass Play Starts Soon and County League Schedule Is Near Ready.

While local high schools are looking forward to the all-star basketball contest, they are now bending most of their efforts toward preparation for spring sports. At all the high schools practice for interclass basketball is in full swing.

O. H. S. INTERCLASS SATURDAY. Oakland high school will hold a track interclass meet on the California oval at Berkeley Saturday, where the boys will be given their first real test of the year. Although the boys who are interested in track have been working out by themselves for some time, this is the first competition of the year, and Coach Book will be watching for performers to fill the shoes of the graduates. Atwater, Henderson, Hermel and others will be loaned to the team which will represent Oakland.

Captain Ronald of the track team, who won the sprints in the 120-pound weight classes in the A. C. L. meet last year, will go into the unlimited competition this year. Hilburn, who placed second in the hurdles and won the pole vault, is out for a place on the team. Zenas and Johnston are out for the javelin and discus events.

Among the recruits are several boys of promise. Crawford, who won the high school medal in The TRIBUNE Marathon is a freshman, and will turn out for the muffs and mules. Tiers, another freshman looks good in the sprints. Morshita, a little Japanese boy is showing up well in the 100 and 150 yard dashes, and will probably be in the 120-pound class. Gardner, Boyesen, and McComb look promising in the hurdle events.

Captain MacGregor of this year's football team is showing a lot of speed in the 100 and 220-yard sprints, while Davidson is out for the quarter mile. BASKETBALL PLAY STARTS. In basketball the Oakland boys have three veterans Thompson, who has been elected captain in place of Chubb who has left school, and probably be back at his old guard position with Left Larkyer. These two and Burpee, a forward should form the backbone for a good team. Book is looking for a good full center, and thinks he will be able to develop the goods out of Munster or Burt. The latter is only a freshman, but has been showing up well in practice. Among the prominent candidates for the vacant forward position is Sinnamore.

The basketball schedule will start next Monday with the Sophomores against the Juniors and the Freshmen against the Juniors. On Monday the Freshmen will meet the Juniors and the Sophomores meet the Juniors. Each team will meet all the others and the winner will be determined on a percentage basis.

The high school schedule for the Alameda County Athletic League basketball series will be settled on during the next week or two. The season will be earlier this year than last, as the State Federation of High Schools has decided that the season must be finished before March 2. In order to play the semi-finals of the State championship, the season must be finished before March 2. The State championship will be settled on March 9, and the State championship a week later. Principal Biedenbach of Berkeley High School is the head of the Northern conference, and is arranging for the dates of the State play now. A. C. L. will be settling a meeting of the coaches of this county.

In spite of the handicap suffered by the Alameda High School boys in not having a gym in which to practice basketball, an interclass series is scheduled to start next week. The Alameda basketball boys are anxious to have a good team and will do their practicing out of doors. Although practice on a dirt court will undoubtedly handicap them, their Coach Rittler is not discouraged and will enter a team in the A. C. L. series.

The Hayward High School 130-pound basketball team is anxious to arrange games with 130-pound teams around the county. The team is coached by Coach Rittler, basketball manager, Hayward High School.

U. C. Basketball Team Has Only One Veteran

With but one varsity man as a nucleus for a team, Basketball Coach Christie of the U. C. is arranging his plans for the coming season and is looking over the Alameda County basketball material.

War has completely riddled the ranks of the blue and gold basketball and now Coach Christie is looking for the most promising players, while the pick of the reserves and the freshmen have been scattered to the four winds.

FOSTER MAY RETURN. There are a few good men left, however, and from these Christie expects to build a team. The most promising player that the coach has in mind is Dan Foster, who played a steady game at guard last year. It is not likely that Foster will appear on the court this year, but if he should decide to do so he will have no difficulty in regaining his old position.

The next logical candidate for a guard position is Green, of last year's freshman team.

YIMES OUT FOR FORWARD. Captain Fiodberg may be counted upon to do his share as a forward and as a running partner for him "Jap" Yimes, of last year's reserves is the most promising candidate. H. K. Bearford is the only forward left of the 1916 team, and A. Landy, of the 135-pounders, is about complete the number of sharpshooters.

For a center Christie is completely at a loss. There is no man in view with sufficient height and speed and endurance to man the center job, and Christie is awaiting the interclass games with anxiety to see what they may bring out in the form of a center man. Christie tried to press Gordon, the big tackle of the football team, into service at basketball, but found that the same stiff finger which kept Gordon out of the team kept him out of the basketball team this year, will prevent the same finger from handling a basketball.

BIJOU WIN IN NINTH. The team from the United States steamer Albatross played their first game Sunday in the Alameda County basketball league, and won the game, 3 to 1, when the Pilgrims came from behind making three runs and winning the game. The features were the pitching of Bennett of the Albatross, the hitting of Cooney with four hits out of four times up, also the hitting of Draper in the ninth inning and winning his own game. The score.

ALBATROSS	PILGRIMS
Long 10	0
Sengstock 0	1
Bennett 0	1
Monter 0	2
Barr 20	0
Logan 20	0
Totals 36	4

Summary: Struck out by Draper 3, Bennett 1, two base hits—Radovich, Bennett, Draper, Monter, Bennett.

BASKETBALL TEAMS TO BE HELPED BY TRIBUNE

Directory Planned to Aid in Booking Games

The OAKLAND TRIBUNE will again conduct a basketball directory for the benefit of managers of independent teams throughout Alameda county and San Francisco. This directory will be published from time to time, and will contain the names and addresses of the managers of basketball teams with a view to aiding the boys in getting games for their teams.

In addition to this basketball directory, The TRIBUNE will print complete and extensive basketball news, both of school and independent teams. Score blanks on which the managers of the teams can send in the results of their games can be had upon application to the Sporting department, either in writing or in person. In order that The TRIBUNE may print the accounts of these games as soon as possible after the games are played, managers are expected to mail their scores immediately after the games.

The TRIBUNE is personally interested in basketball and in the welfare of every team in the district covered by this paper. Its pages are thrown open to the basketball teams of the bay cities, and it is up to the basketball players to take advantage of this opportunity to further the interests of the sport. Managers should send in their names and addresses immediately to The TRIBUNE Sporting department. A full directory of the managers of basketball teams will be published as soon as a sufficient number are received. Look for the directory in Sunday's TRIBUNE.

Few Kills in First Day of Coursing Meet

MERCED, Nov. 23.—Pins in the California Cup event and all matches for the California purse event will be run off at the Merced coursing meet on the second day of the big coursing meet of the Golden State Coursing Club. Billy Hurl Will Heave Against Del Crespi Tomorrow Secretary Moskman of the Bay Cities Commercial League has scheduled a game nine of the Saturday series, postponed owing to wet grounds, to be played at Bay View tomorrow at 2:30. The Oakland O. C. team meets the Zeros. The Standards are leading the league but will have to win another game before they are in a safe lead for the pennant. Speed Martin will play with the Emeryville club; also Ralph Croll will be seen at third. Billy Hurl will stand ataling with Del Crespi. Larkin will hold Hurl's shoes while Bob Miller will be the back stop for the San Francisco boys.

TELLS NEW METHODS TO RAISE ARMY

A general circular of information has been received by district and local exemption boards from Provost Marshal General E. H. Crowder at Washington, D. C., and the new classification system, which is to be applied to men suitable for military service, beginning December 1. The circular answers questions which have arisen regarding the operation of the new arrangement and contains instructions to the various boards in the method of handling the classification.

Under the new classification plan Crowder points out that 182 forms have been abolished in favor of nine simpler forms, a procedure which cuts down the work of the boards materially. New arrangements have been made for the physical examinations, so that the provost marshal general calls pointed attention. Under the new system the local board examinations are thorough. If the applicant is not satisfied he may appeal to a local advisory board consisting of seven specialists, who will sit on his case. There will be no further double examinations, Crowder concludes.

"We, as a nation, have learned much in the last few months. Whether Germany has taught us or whether we have learned it for ourselves, the volunteer method of raising an army is gone. It will never return. The principle of selection has been tried and approved by our people."

Local division boards are winding up their official clerical existence in anticipation of the two weeks' holiday which comes between December 1 and 15. Under orders from Adjutant-General J. J. Borree, all clerical aid must be dispensed with during that period, leaving the secretaries of the board to mail out such letters as are required to place the classification questionnaire in the hands of all registrants within the respective districts. The saving to the government by that two weeks' vacation is estimated at $1,000,000.

Among the final work of the old draft is a number of eleventh-hour certifications from the district board in San Francisco of men who are to go to the front. These are being completed by discharges at Camp Lewis, granted exemption or called for military service. Leaving Saturday night from division No. 7 are:

BATHE INTERNALLY
OVER 500,000 PEOPLE ARE NOW DOING SO.

For many years physicians have agreed that the vast majority of human diseases are caused by an accumulated waste in the lower intestine, that in our present way of living Nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be; and that the poison from this waste could circulate through the blood, pulled us away down below, and was responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" for internal bathing has because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor.

Recently, however, the startling news which has been coming this country that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the lower intestine for the most chronic and serious diseases has caused Americans to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping the lower intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal Bathing.

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable. The poisonous waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Bathing is Nature's own cure for Constipation—just warm water properly applied. Nature's force. Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

Call and see it at The Owl Drug Co. or ask them for "Why Bathe Internally." It is only 50 per cent. Efficient. A booklet of great interest, which is given free on request.—Advertisement.

Blue Bird Bureau

It was not until the doctor was called by outsiders that it was discovered what was really the matter with the mother. He was blunt in his explanation. By that time she had fallen ill.

"She has been starting herself to provide enough food for the children," he said.

When questioned the woman broke down and confessed that she had not eaten until the children were satisfied, and that she had not had enough to eat.

"I did not wish to ask for anything," she explained. "I thought I could get along."

This was one of the families which had been referred to the Blue Bird Bureau for Christmas cheer. She had allowed a friend to bring the message. "I am not asking anything but some little toys and candies for the kids," the mother explained. "I want nothing for myself, and we can get along without any extra Christmas dinner, except a little better food and little more that day."

But the youngsters believe that Christmas will bring them some little presents and it hurts to see them disappointed, especially the youngest.

It is in behalf of these children and others like them that the Blue Bird Bureau is asking the Good Fellows of Oakland to bestir themselves. The TRIBUNE does not ask money or presents. It is asking that the Good Fellows who want to help apply to the bureau for the names of children, any number from one up, they can care for and will be glad to bring Christmas to when Yuletide comes.

The woman is a widow with four children. She has been receiving "half-orphan state aid" on the recommendation of the Associated Charities. This means $11 a month for each child, up to $40 as a total. She has been caring for this family of four on $40 a month, with small additional sums which she earned herself, and which the oldest boy of 14 earned by odd jobs. She has been anxious for her children, has kept them regularly in school, and has made them look presentable. She has also seen, by starving herself, that they had enough food so that they could go to school and get the best out of their studies.

Have you ever thought of the mothers, left without resources through the death of the wage earner in the family, who are making heroic struggles to keep their little ones out of the orphan asylums, and to give them a real home? Have you ever thought of the work and worry and strain? Do you know anything about how much or how little they receive from the community to aid them in the task of bringing up citizens?

If you have not thought of these things, now is a good time. For the holiday season is approaching, when any hardship that falls upon children is felt more bitterly than through the rest of the year.

The Blue Bird Bureau has on its list of children who will not be remembered on Christmas eve or Christmas morning unless the Good Fellows of Oakland remember them, a number of these "half-orphans." From some the Blue Bird and Santa Claus have received letters asking that Santa Claus visit them. Others the Blue Bird Bureau has learned about through the records showing families receiving state aid.

There is a story of bravery and pathos in every one of these homes. The bare records showing the state aid given on the recommendation of the Associated Charities tell but a small part of the story.

The state, through the county Board of Supervisors, and with the approval of the Associated Charities, makes an allowance for each child who is a half-orphan or orphan, and who is being kept by his relatives instead of being placed in an institution for orphans. This allowance is $11. It has been $11 for many years.

Remember that the cost of living has been going steadily upward—as every housewife knows. But the "half-orphan state aid" has remained stationary.

EXTEND STREET TOOHEY FUNERAL

After three years of negotiating between the city and the Oakland, Antioch and Eastern Railway, arrangements have been made whereby Broadway will be extended through the railway properties from its present terminal in the hilly district to the city center.

Proceedings for the opening of the thoroughfare will soon be started in the street department. The plan will entail an excavating job, involving a turn in the roadway to conform to the hill lands adjacent. The only expense to the property owners will be for paving.

James A. Goodnight, Richard Eaton and John H. Thies Jr., who will fill up holes in the ranks of previous quotas which preceded them to Camp Lewis.

In the same district William F. Henderson, Peter York Fox and Edward J. Byrne have been called into service, and the following have been granted exemption or discharged: George H. Stanford, Lavin V. Shipley, Lawrence I. Person, Irving B. Smith, Edward A. Larock, William H. Brink, Earl H. Miller, August A. Kramm, Emory E. Eatis, James J. Southard and William D. Fairweather.

In district No. 1 the following have been certified from the federal district board for service and will leave for Camp Lewis shortly: Corv M. Starn, Jesse Costa, John J. Rusting, Clyde E. Mahy, Edward S. Budd, Ralph J. Ruckert, Lorenz L. Kreuzberger, John E. Bruns.

BIG FIRE CHECKED

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 23.—Danger of the cutting off of this city's water supply by a fierce forest fire which last night raged through Mission canyon and menaced the city, was averted today. Constabulary members, high school cadets and volunteer fighters battled throughout the night with the flames, and this morning all menace to the city's water supply was said to have passed, the fire in the vicinity of the pumping station and around the trestle works having been checked. Flames were still raging, however, nearby, and forest rangers continued on duty throughout the day.

Toohey came to California from New York 41 years ago and has resided in Oakland until within a few years ago, when he went to Fresno.

GILL GETS MEDAL

Walter J. Gill, operator of the city prison elevator is today the recipient of a token of esteem from jail "trustees" in the person of Chief Jailor John Gardner in behalf of the donors. The medal bears one face the likeness of the late Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans and commemorates the Philippine campaign in which Gill took a prominent part as a corporal in an infantry regiment.

FRIENDS SAY GIRL NURSE MAY BE DEAD

Since Miss Velma Haynes, an attractive Red Cross nurse, left the home of friends at 1144 Twelfth street Wednesday morning, her friends and relatives today are searching for her.

According to Miss Lucie Hallock, a nurse friend, whose aunt they were visiting in Twelfth street, Miss Haynes has been in ill health for a long time, suffering from stomach trouble. She came to Oakland last Monday for a few days' rest, but was unable to leave her bed until she finally determined to visit Dr. Gilbert Barrett of 1051 Cole street, San Francisco. She failed to appear at the physician's office and inquiry among her many friends in the different San Francisco hospitals has thrown no additional light on the mystery.

Miss Haynes is 27 years of age. She made her home at the Nurses' Registry in San Francisco. She is a graduate of Bellevue Hospital in New York and has a high standing in the nursing profession.

"We are positive that some serious accident has befallen her," said Miss Hallock today. "When she left Oakland she did not take any of her belongings with her. She may have had considerable money, but it was her intention, to all appearances, to return after visiting her physician. If she is conscious she would surely inform us of her whereabouts. As it is we fear for the worse."

Because of her ill health, Miss Haynes greatly feared that she would not be able to answer when an expected call to enter war service was received. It was because of her desire to get well at once that she started across the bay, according to Miss Hallock. The order to report at once to the Letterman General Hospital at the Presidio was received at the Hallock home after Miss Haynes started from San Francisco.

Miss Hallock and her aunt advance as their only hope that Miss Haynes is safe the possibility that she may have been taken seriously ill while on her way and at present may be in the home of some kindly disposed person.

Another opportunity for local banks, financial institutions and former business associates to face George Seely, former head of the Seely Auto Sales Company, prominent automobile man, wanted in this city on charges which grew out of his alleged manipulation of sales agreements, was lost, according to information received here by bank detectives and the local police, when the Oakland man eluded "Burr" operatives at Akron, O., a few days ago, after a chase lasting over a period of weeks.

The mysterious disappearance of Seely from his former haunts has been the cause of considerable comment among his friends. For weeks, former associates have tried to obtain word of his whereabouts, not knowing that a warrant for his arrest was in the hands of the police and his description had been sent broadcast to police departments and sheriff's offices all over the country. Bank detectives, hot on his trail, were almost able to put their hands on the auto man's shoulder when he again slipped through the net.

Several Oakland banks were involved in Seely's financial transactions, and a money lending institution or two. Loans taken upon machines which Seely is alleged to have "kited" protected many of the securities but it is understood that money which Seely obtained from private sources was not so well protected. One of Seely's transactions caused a warrant to be sworn out which was turned over to the police and dropped from sight before the warrant could be served.

DETECTIVES HIRED.

The matter has been kept quiet while the bank detectives sought the trail. From point to point they shadowed their man, always arriving just too late to take him into custody. He was last heard of at Akron, O., where he stayed just long enough for his presence in the city to be learned. Twenty-four hours later he was gone.

Local financial institutions declare that they will not prosecute Seely if brought back, having taken steps to protect the securities after he "got into" them.

MAN HANGS SELF

George Jund, a retired butcher of 401 Telegraph avenue, committed suicide last night by hanging himself to a rafter in the garage at his home. Despondency through worry over the safety of relatives in Germany and from illness are believed to be the cause.

Jund returned home shortly after 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Soon after 6 o'clock his wife missed him and asked Thomas Irwin, of 4565 Telegraph avenue, to find out if he was in the garage. Irwin found Jund hanging by the neck. Jund was 49 years of age. He is survived by a widow, Katherine, and a young daughter, Madeline.

OAKLAND BOYS GRATEFUL FOR COMFORT KITS

From seven Oakland boys in the United States Naval Reserve there has come to the Oakland Chapter of the Red Cross a letter of appreciation for the kits furnished them as they left their home city for training quarters. The donors of these particular kits are unknown, and in order that they may receive the words of thanks, The TRIBUNE publishes herewith the letter:

"U. S. N. R. Training Station, San Pedro, Cal., Nov. 4, 1917.

"To the Ladies of the Church concerned herein:

"We, the undersigned, do hereby express our thanks to a lady of your church for the first aid kits furnished us on our departure from Oakland to the Naval Reserve training station. Having spent our first night and our second day in camp we realize the value of these kits, and can say that those people responsible for furnishing and distributing these kits are amply rewarded by the way the boys appreciate them, although they may never hear about it.

"Once again we thank all concerned.

"FRED H. SPIESS,
"J. L. DENT,
"DONALD A. BREED,
"E. F. MORSE,
"SPENCER BECKWITH,

SOLDIER IS HELD UP AT POINT OF GUN

Held up at the point of a revolver early this morning, Private W. A. Lean of Company B, Sixty-second Infantry, was relieved of $5 by a masked footpad in Claremont avenue, near Hudson street, according to his report to the police of the Northern division. A search was made of the neighborhood by the police, but no trace of the robber was found.

A. J. Cavello, of 1227 Sixty-first street reports that his home was entered by a burglar last night and that an assortment of jewelry was taken.

Mrs. C. M. Price left her home at 872 Fifty-eighth street to go to a grocery store and when she returned she found that the house had been ransacked and $20 stolen.
